THE STORY OF BEAR DOWN

University of Arizona Athletics' most enduring tradition is the slogan and battle cry, "Bear Down."

More than a casual piece of encouragement, the rally cry has roots over a century old, to the Roaring '20s, and pre-dates another venerated exhortation, "Win one for the Gipper," by two years.

In the fall of 1926, John Byrd "Button" Salmon was the newly installed student body president at the UA, a promising student and member of note of several of the school's honor societies. He also was a varsity quarterback, a baseball catcher and generally acclaimed popular campus figure. He embodied all-around.

In early October after the Wildcat varsity defeated the freshman squad in an annual match at the time, Salmon and several friends were returning from a visit to Phoenix, and an automobile crash north of Tucson near Florence left the young athlete critically injured.

Salmon, then 22, lost his battle and died the morning of Oct. 18. A memorial service was held on campus that week, drawing a reported thousand mourners, and a line of cars stretched miles to his burial plot.

The coach at the time, J.F. "Pop" McKale, had visited Salmon in the hospital regularly before his death, and later told the squad the young athlete's last message to his teammates was, "Tell them... tell the team to bear down."

It's unclear whether McKale invoked the phrase to the team before one of several games that year, a contest in Las Cruces against New Mexico A&M (NMSU) that same week, or two weeks later before a game against New Mexico in Tucson. UA won both.

But when word spread, the UA student body drew to the phrase swiftly, and among other uses painted the slogan on the roof of the University gymnasium shortly thereafter, known since as Bear Down Gym. An airplane view of that huge-lettered phrase caused eventual long-time band director Jack K. Lee to write the song, "Bear Down, Arizona" during his application for the UA band job. The song, and Douglas Holsclaw's "Fight, Wildcats, Fight," are played throughout University of Arizona sporting events, and from the campus belltower daily.

Originally located outside the McKale Memorial Center upon its dedication in 1986, the bronze bust memorial to John "Button" Salmon was relocated in 2013 to more visible quarters near the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility. The new location placed the bust closer to the stadium, representative of Salmon's participation in football. The bust faces southeast so that it may look across the former Kindall-Sancet baseball stadium and on to the current home of Arizona baseball, Hi Corbett Field, as well as Salmon's hometown of Bisbee.

As part of a new tradition established with the 2013 season, Arizona football players pass and touch the bust as a show of tribute as they complete the "Wildcat Walk" and enter the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility before every home game. The "Bear Down" rally cry also appears inside Arizona Stadium. Arizona's FieldTurf playing surface features "Bear Down" in ghost lettering behind the prominent block "A" logo at midfield.

In spring of 2008, a highway memorial honoring the Bear Down tradition was installed along State Route 79 near the site of the tragic crash at Florence.

With or without the pieces of bronze and marble, Bear Down as a phrase and song has been inexorably a part of UA athletics, woven into its fabric year after year, since October 1926. Since 2000, UA Athletics has awarded John Button Salmon Awards to 23 former coaches or administrators for exemplary leadership and service to the University, in honor of the tradition's namesake.

"Button" Salmon died generations ago but his message still echoes across every UA athletic venue, in every corner and through every building on campus, and in the thoughts of tens of thousands of Wildcat supporters past, present and future.

ARIZONA FOOTBALL MEDIA POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Media Information

Jeff Bowe and Brett Gleason of Arizona Athletics Communication Services will assist media members throughout the season in their coverage of Arizona Football including issuing a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press box operations, credentialing and road-game access, among other services. Any questions about media policies should be directed to Jeff Bowe via email at jeffb1@arizona.edu or (520) 528-2101.

Jedd Fisch Regular Season Media Availability (Monday at 1:30 p.m. | Thursday at 1:00 p.m.)

Head coach Jedd Fisch will meet twice weekly with the local media in Monday and Thursday press conferences. Both press conferences will take place in the east concourse press conference room.

Coach Fisch also participates in a weekly radio show on Monday evenings. The show airs on 1290 AM in Tucson, 910 AM in Phoenix and through the TuneIn app.

Arizona Football Coordinator & Student-Athlete Media Availability (Tuesday at 1:00 p.m.)

Offensive coordinator Brennan Carroll, defensive coordinator Johnny Nansen, and select Arizona football student-athletes will be available to the media on Tuesday afternoons throughout the season in the east concourse press conference room. A list of the scheduled student-athletes will be communicated on Monday evening or Tuesday morning.

Out of town media requests for players should be received by Sunday evening.

Credentials

Credentials will be issued to professional members of media outlets that regularly cover Arizona Athletics and to regional, national or visiting professional journalists. Internet entities may or may not qualify for credentials and will be considered on a case-by-case basis. All credential requests may be submitted at ArizonaWildcats.com/FBCredentials.

Parking

Parking is distributed on a space-available basis to credentialed members of the media. Parking passes should be acquired prior to game day. Any members of the media needing additional accommodations should make arrangements prior to game day. Contact Brett Gleason in the Arizona Athletics Communications department (brettgleason@arizona.edu).

For the 2023 season, all media parking is in the 6th Street Parking Garage. The 6th Street Parking Garage is located just a few blocks west of Arizona Stadium. Elevators servicing the Arizona Stadium Press Box on the west side of the stadium are conveniently located within walking distance from the media parking garage (five minutes or fewer to walk).

Arizona On Air

The Arizona Learfield Radio Network, with Cumulus Broadcasting Company, uses KCUB 1290AM in Tucson as the flagship station for originating radio broadcasts, augmented by KCUB's 100,000-watt sister FM station, KHYT 107.5FM, in Southern Arizona.

Broadcasts of Arizona football games are led by Director of Broadcasting Brian Jeffries. The veteran play-by-play announcer has served as the voice of the Wildcats for football, basketball and baseball since Arizona's 1986 Aloha Bowl football appearance.

Since 2004, Jeffries has been joined by color analyst Lamont Lovett, a former UA running back. Rob Joyce rounds out the broadcast team by providing live scoreboard updates and highlights from other games around the country.

Additionally, Learfield produces Spanish-language radio broadcasts for select football and men's basketball games. Francisco Romero provides the play-by-play commentary for the broadcasts, which are available online at www.arizonawildcats.com

Jedd Fisch

Third Season at Arizona
Third Season as a Head Coach

Career Record: 7-19 (.269)
Arizona: 6-18 (.250)

Veteran NFL and college coach Jedd Fisch was hired as the head coach of Arizona Football on Dec. 23, 2020. Coach Fisch and the University of Arizona agreed to a five-year contract extension through the 2027 season that was made official by the Arizona Board of Regents on Dec. 13, 2022, following a four-win improvement from 2021 to 2022. Fisch enters his third season with the Wildcats in 2023. He came to Arizona after eight years of coaching at the collegiate level, including stints in the ACC, Big Ten and Pac-12 and 13 years in the NFL, most recently with the New England Patriots.

Coach Fisch's second year with the Wildcats in 2022 was highlighted by a four-win improvement marking the third-largest win increase in a single season in program history. The Wildcats finished 5-7 in 2022 after going 1-11 in 2021. The 2022 season saw the Wildcats defeat No. 9 UCLA at the Rose Bowl, which was Arizona's first top-10 win on the road since 2015.

Arizona went on to defeat Arizona State in the Territorial Cup two weeks later, snapping its in-state rival's five-game winning streak. The 2022 Wildcats finished with the nation's 6th ranked passing attack, averaging 318.4 yards per game. Arizona boasted the 21st nationally ranked total offense with 461.9 total yards per game. The Wildcats averaged the second-most passing yards per game in program history. Quarterback Jayden de Laura finished third in the conference in passing yards per game (307.1 - 9th nationally), third in total passing yards (3,685 - 9th nationally), and fourth in the conference in passing touchdowns (25 - 18th nationally). De Laura threw six touchdowns against Colorado tying a school record set by Tom Tunnicliffe in 1982.

The Wildcats development and growth on offense was historical as quarterback Jayden de Laura threw for 3,685 yards and 25 touchdowns in 2022, which ranked sixth and third respectively in program history for a season.

Wide receiver Jacob Cowing finished his 2022 season with 85 catches for 1,034 yards, which were the third-most catches and the seventh-most yards in a season by a Wildcat. His 85 catches were the most by an Arizona wide out since Bobby Wade's 93-reception season in 2002.

Fellow receiver, Tetairoa McMillan, finished his freshman season with 39 catches for 702 yards and eight touchdowns. His 702 yards were the most ever by an Arizona freshman and his yardage and eight touchdown catches were tops among all FBS true freshmen during the regular season. McMillan and offensive lineman Jonah Savaiinaea made Arizona the only school with two honorees on 247 Sports Freshmen All-American team.

These notable individual accomplishments propelled Arizona's offense into becoming one of the most improved in the nation. Arizona went from the 124th in the nation in scoring offense in Fisch's first season to 48th (30.8 ppg) in 2022. Similarly, Arizona rose to 21st in the NCAA in total offense in 2022 after finishing 101st the year prior.

The Wildcats also rushed for the most yards in a game in the Territorial Cup victory (280 yds) since a 312-yard performance against Texas Tech in 2019, encapsulating a span of 48 games.

Under the guidance of Fisch and defensive coordinator Don Brown, the Wildcats defense finished the 2021 season ranked fifth in the Pac-12 in total defense, up from a 12th-place finish the year prior. Defensive linemen Kyon Barrs (second team) and Trevon Mason (HM), along with linebacker Anthony Pandy (HM) all earned All-Conference nods.

Fisch's first win at Arizona came in dramatic fashion, with a Michael Wiley rushing touchdown in the waning minutes sealing the Wildcats 10-3 victory over the visiting California Golden Bears.

Following his first season leading the Wildcats, Fisch and his staff successfully inked the nationally-lauded 2022 signing class. His first complete signing class, which included the first five-star player in program history, ranked second in the Pac-12 and 22nd nationally according to 247Sports. The 2022 class was headlined by five-star wide receiver Tetairoa McMillan, high school quarterback Noah Fifita, transfer quarterback Jayden de Laura, and numerous other highly-touted prep players and transfers. De Laura, who transferred to Arizona from Washington State, was named the 2021 Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year after passing for 2,757 yards and 23 touchdowns with the Cougars.

The 44-year-old Fisch has been a part of championship seasons throughout his career, including with the Los Angeles Rams as a member of head coach Sean McVay's staff as the Rams won the NFC championship and appeared in Super Bowl LIII. Fisch's coaching pedigree also includes working under future NFL

Hall of Famers Bill Belichick and Pete Carroll, as well as college football Hall of Fame member Steve Spurrier and Michigan's Jim Harbaugh.

A widely-respected offensive mind, Fisch has helped guide top offenses in the NFL with three of his offenses finishing in the Top 10 in total offense, including the top-ranked offense with the Denver Broncos and the second-ranked offense with the Rams. While offensive coordinator at UCLA in 2017, Fisch guided the Bruins' offense to a top-three ranking in the Pac-12 before leading the Bruins in their final regular season game and to the Cactus Bowl as the interim head coach.

Fisch broke into the NFL coaching ranks with the Houston Texans in 2001, serving as an assistant to head coach Dom Capers. He would go on to join the coaching staffs with the Broncos, Baltimore Ravens, Seattle Seahawks and Jacksonville Jaguars working for head coaches Mike Shanahan, Brian Billick, Pete Carroll and Gus Bradley respectively.

Fisch is a native of Livingston, N.J. and graduated from the University of Florida with a degree in Criminology in 1998. He earned his Master's degree from the University of Florida.

Fisch and his wife, Amber, have three daughters: Zaylee, Ashlee and Kendall.

JOHNNY NANSEN

Defensive Coordinator

Year at Arizona: 2nd

Years in Coaching: 27th

Head coach Jedd Fisch announced the hiring of Johnny Nansen to be the next defensive coordinator for Arizona Football on Dec. 1, 2021. Nansen spent the previous two seasons coaching the defensive line for UCLA and has coached in the Pac-12 since 2009.

Once aboard with the Wildcats, Nansen played a key role in building Arizona's 2022 signing class that ranked second in the Pac-12, 22nd nationally, and included the first five-star signee in program history.

In 2022, the Wildcats forced 16 turnovers marking an improvement of 10 turnovers from 2021 helping Arizona to a win improvement of four games. It marked the third largest win improvement in program history jumping from 1-11 in 2021 to 5-7 in 2022. Arizona landed former five-star linebacker Justin Flowe (Oregon) during the early signing period for the 2023 recruiting class. Nansen helped the Wildcats secure 16 defensive signees on early signing day to add depth and talent to the defense.

During the 2021 season, Nansen played a significant role in UCLA's success defending the run as the Bruins allowed the second-fewest rushing yards per game in the conference (124.2), 26th nationally. In his first season with UCLA in 2020, the Bruins defense led the Pac-12 in fewest rushing yards per carry allowed (3.6) and rated eighth in the nation while leading the league in sacks per game (3.29).

Prior to his time at UCLA, Nansen spent six seasons on the coaching staff at USC. In 2019, he guided the inside linebackers and was the defensive run game coordinator. From 2016-18, Nansen held the title of assistant head coach while working with the linebackers and coordinating recruiting efforts.

In 2017, Nansen was named the Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year by 247Sports.com and helped guide the USC defense that ranked fourth nationally in red zone defense (.712) and fifth in sacks (3.3) while coaching linebacker Uchenna Nwosu, who was a first team All-American and a second-round pick in the NFL draft.

Nansen's first two seasons at USC in 2014 and 2015 were spent as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator. In 2015, tailbacks Ronald Jones II and Justin Davis each rushed for more than 900 yards, while Jones set the USC freshman season rushing record and became just the second true freshman to lead USC in season rushing. In 2014, tailback Javorius Allen made All-Pac-12 first team while rushing for 1,489 yards (the most by a Trojan since 2005) and he was an NFL fourth round draft pick. USC's special teams also returned two punts and two kickoffs for touchdowns.

Nansen spent the previous five seasons at Washington in a variety of roles from 2009-13. From 2012-13, he was the assistant head coach, running backs coach and special teams coordinator. In 2012 and 2013, Bishop Sankey put together back-to-back top-20 national rushing finishes. Sankey, who was a Doak Walker Award finalist in 2013, ranked fourth nationally in rushing yards per game (143.8) that season and the Huskies rated 15th-best in the country in rushing offense. In 2012, Sankey was 19th in the NCAA with a 110.7 rushing yards per game mark and went on to play in the NFL with the Tennessee Titans.

In 2011, Washington ranked No. 7 in the nation in net punting and No. 21 in punt return defense. In 2010, his special teams featured school record-setting punter Kiel Rasp and in 2009, Nansen coached defensive end Daniel Te'o-Nesheim an NFL draftee who finished his career with a school-record 30 sacks.

Before coaching at Washington, Nansen spent five seasons from 2004-08 at Idaho, where he worked with the linebackers his first three years, defensive line the final two years and special teams each season.

He began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Louisville in 1999, working with the defensive line as the Cardinals earned a berth in the Humanitarian Bowl. His first full-time coaching job came in 2000 as the Montana State running backs coach and went on to coach three seasons (2001-03) at Idaho State, coaching cornerbacks and the secondary.

Nansen was a three-year letterman linebacker at Washington State and received his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1997. He and his wife, Hale, have three children – Makena Lei, Kealia Kei and Johnny Jr.

BRENNAN CARROLL

Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line

Year at Arizona: 3rd

Years in Coaching: 21st

Carroll enters his third season with Arizona in 2023 after being hired as the Wildcats offensive coordinator and offensive line coach by head coach Jedd Fisch on January 1, 2021. Carroll joined the Wildcats from the Seattle Seahawks where he spent the previous six seasons as running game coordinator and offensive line coach following a decade in the college ranks at USC and Miami.

In his second season with Arizona in 2022, the Wildcats averaged 461.9 yards of total offense per game to finish 22nd nationally. Arizona passed for 318.4 yards per game, representing the 8th ranked passing attack nationally. The Wildcats development and growth on offense was historical as quarterback Jayden de Laura threw for 3,685 yards and 25 touchdowns in 2022, which ranked sixth and third respectively in program history for a season.

Wide receiver Jacob Cowing finished his 2022 season with 85 catches for 1,034 yards, which were the third-most catches and the seventh-most yards in a season by a Wildcat. His 85 catches were the most by an Arizona wide out since Bobby Wade's 93-reception season in 2002.

Fellow receiver, Tetairoa McMillan, finished his freshman season with 39 catches for 702 yards and eight touchdowns. His 702 yards were the most ever by an Arizona freshman and his yardage and eight touchdown catches were tops among all FBS true freshmen during the regular season. McMillan and offensive lineman Jonah Savaiinaea made Arizona the only school with two honorees on 247 Sports Freshmen All-American team.

These notable individual accomplishments propelled Arizona's offense into becoming one of the most improved in the nation. Arizona went from the 124th in the nation in scoring offense in Fisch's first season to 48th in 2022. Similarly, Arizona rose to 22nd in the NCAA in total offense in 2022 after finishing 101st the year prior.

The Wildcats also rushed for the most yards in a game in the Territorial Cup victory (280 yds) since a 312-yard performance against Texas Tech in 2019, encapsulating a span of 48 games. Arizona had seven players selected to All-Pac-12 Performance awards with six named Honorable Mention.

In his first season at the helm of the Wildcats offense, Carroll helped guide wide receiver Stanley Berryhill III and offensive lineman Josh McCauley to All-Pac-12 honors. Berryhill, a long-time Wildcat, enjoyed a career year in Carroll's offense, hauling in a team-leading 83 receptions and 744 yards. McCauley anchored the Wildcats line, starting every game at center and earning the highest Pro Football Focus rating among Arizona's offensive linemen.

Carroll also played a key role in building Arizona's 2022 signing class that ranked second in the Pac-12, 22nd nationally, and included the first five-star signee in program history.

The Seahawks' offense was among the NFL's best during Carroll's time in Seattle. The team ranked among the top five in rushing in three different seasons, which includes being the top rushing offense in the NFL in 2018. Offensive players on Seattle's roster made 11 trips to the Pro Bowl during Carroll's tenure with the Seahawks, led by quarterback Russell Wilson's five trips to Hawai'i. The franchise posted an overall record of 61-33 in those six seasons with five playoff appearances.

The 41-year-old has strong coaching bloodlines as the oldest son of former USC, and current Seattle Seahawks head coach, Pete Carroll. Prior to his move to the NFL, Carroll spent four seasons coaching tight ends and wide receivers as well as handling recruiting coordinator duties for Miami under head coach Al Golden from 2011 to 2014. The Hurricanes had three recruiting classes ranked in the top 15 nationally during those seasons.

His coaching career began at USC where he spent the 2002 and 2003 seasons as a graduate assistant before being elevated to the Trojans' tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator for six seasons. Carroll coached elite tight ends for USC as the position coach, including 2007 Mackey Award winner Fred Davis as well as Dominique Byrd who was selected in the third round of the 2006 NFL Draft. While in Los Angeles, Carroll was on staff for eight total seasons as the Trojans won 91 games, won four Rose Bowls and defeated Oklahoma in the national championship game in the 2005 Orange Bowl.

Carroll played tight end in college at Pittsburgh after transferring from Delaware. He earned his bachelor's degree from Pittsburgh in 2001. Carroll and his wife, Amber, have three children.

JIMMIE DOUGHERTY

Passing Game Coordinator & QBs

Year at Arizona: 3rd

Years in Coaching: 22nd

Dougherty enters his third season with Arizona in 2023 after being hired as the Wildcats passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach on January 4, 2021 by head coach Jedd Fisch. He arrived in Tucson following four seasons at UCLA as Passing Game Coordinator and Wide Receivers Coach. The Bruins' offense finished atop the Pac-12 in total offense in 2020 and second in scoring as a trio of UCLA offensive players earned second team all-conference honors.

During his first season in Tucson in 2021, Dougherty navigated numerous injuries at the quarterback position to produce a passing attack that averaged nearly 215 yards per game. Wide receiver Stanley Berryhill III set career-high marks in receptions (83) and receiving yards (744) en route to earning All-Pac-12 honors in Dougherty's passing game.

Dougherty also played a key role in building Arizona's 2022 signing class that ranked second in the Pac-12 (22nd nationally) and included the first five-star signee in program history.

Under his tutelage at UCLA, Kyle Phillips set the school record for most catches by a freshman in 2019. Dougherty has now coached four difference UCLA receivers to top single-season marks in program history, including Phillips, Jordan Lasley, Theo Howard and Darren Andrews. UCLA's receiving corps established a new school record for most passing yards in a season at 4,478 in 2017.

Prior to hit stint at UCLA, he served as an offensive analyst under Jim Harbaugh at Michigan in 2016 when the Wolverines boasted the 12th-best scoring offense in the nation at 41.0 points per game.

Dougherty spent three seasons, from 2013 to 2015, at San Jose State. During the 2013 and 2014 seasons, he served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Spartans and was promoted to Assistant Head Coach in 2014. In 2013, he directed an offense that set 10 single-season team records and saw players establish more than 35 individual school marks. The Spartans were ranked sixth nationally in passing offense (355.9 yards per game), 15th in total offense (493.3) and averaged 32.4 points per game that season. Dougherty worked directly with quarterback David Fales, who went on to be an NFL draft selection of the Chicago Bears, on a passing game that gained more than 4,000 yards for the second season in a row.

In 2014, he coached quarterback Joe Gray, who tied a Mountain West record for consecutive games passing of at least 300 yards. In 2015, he transitioned to coach the wide receivers. The Spartans ranked eighth in the country in completion percentage (.675), 12th nationally in third down conversion percentage (.478) and 18th in the NCAA in red zone offense (.889) in 2013 as Dougherty received national accolades as a Broyles Award nominee as one of the top assistant coaches in NCAA Division I FBS Football.

Prior to coaching at San Jose State, Dougherty coached at Washington for four years from 2009-12 where he served as the wide receivers coach. In his last season at Washington, he added the title of passing game coordinator. Dougherty worked closely with Jermaine Kearse, who went on to become a starter on the Seahawks' Super Bowl XLVIII winning team and amassed over 3,000 yards in the NFL.

A quarterback at Missouri from 1997 to 2001, Dougherty began his coaching career as a defensive backs coach at Illinois Wesleyan during the 2002 and 2003 seasons. Dougherty earned his bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies from Missouri in 2002 and received his master's degree in Sport Management from Illinois State in 2004.

Jimmie and his wife, Harper, have two daughters, Collins and Ellie, and a son, Maverick.

CHUCK CECIL

Defensive Backs

Year at Arizona: 6th

Years in Coaching: 22nd

Former National Football League (NFL) defensive coordinator, Pro Bowl Safety, College Football Hall of Famer and Wildcat standout Chuck Cecil was appointed Defensive Backs Coach in December of 2020 following four seasons as a Senior Defensive Analyst and interim Defensive Coordinator. He enters his third season in this role in 2023.

During the 2021 season, Cecil's defensive backs held opposing offenses to just 190 yards passing per game, a mark that ranked second in the Pac-12 and 15th nationally. It marked the first time since 2005 that the Wildcats finished second or better in the conference in pass defense. Arizona held their opponents to fewer than 100 yards passing four times during the 2021 campaign.

Cecil also played a key role in building Arizona's 2022 signing class that ranked second in the Pac-12 (22nd nationally) and included the first five-star signee in program history.

Prior to joining the Wildcats, Cecil served as the senior defensive coach for the Los Angeles Rams (2015-2017). The Rams defense ranked in the top 10 of the NFL during the 2016 season. In 2012, Cecil shared in the Rams defensive coordinator responsibilities and served as the defensive backs coach. The defense improved from 26th (2011) to 14th (2012) while the secondary ranked second for the fewest passing touchdowns in the league in 2014.

In the 2010 and 2009 seasons, Cecil was the defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans. As the architect of a solid run and pressure-oriented defense, the defense finished the 2009 season ranked 11th overall in the NFL. Tennessee ranked eighth in the league in interceptions (20) and second in interceptions returned for touchdown (4). During his final three years, the Titans defense ranked third in the NFL in interceptions (62) behind only Green Bay and Baltimore.

A veteran secondary coach, Cecil taught and developed a defensive back core that grew into one of the finest secondary units in the league. During the 2008 season as the defensive back coach, three of the four players were invited to the Pro Bowl for the first time in their careers. It was the first time in NFL history that three players from the same secondary represented the team in the Pro Bowl. Overall, they snared 19 interceptions, which ranked second in the NFL. Prior, Cecil coached safeties and nickel backs.

A Pro Bowl Safety, Cecil played seven years in the NFL. Selected by the Green Bay Packers in 1988, Cecil was known as a ferocious player and was featured on the 1993 cover of Sports Illustrated with the title "Is Chuck Cecil Too Vicious for the NFL?" Cecil played seven years in the NFL. The Green Bay Packers (1988-92), Phoenix Cardinals (1993), and Houston Oilers (1995) during which he notched 461 tackles, 16 interceptions, and one touchdown.

One of the most accomplished and decorated players in Arizona Football history, Cecil played for the Wildcats from 1984-87 under head coaches Larry Smith and Dick Tomey. During his collegiate career in Tucson, Cecil tallied 392 total tackles, 21 interceptions, and 38 passes defended. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2009. His 106-yard interception return in the 1986 Territorial Cup still stands as the longest interception return in program history and he remains in the program's top 10 career leaderboards in tackles, interceptions, and pass breakups.

Cecil is married to Carrie Gerlach Cecil, a native Arizonan who has established a successful communications career creating literary, television, film, online, business and live content. The couple met in their time at UA and have one daughter, Charli (15) as well as two dogs. They are heavily involved in community service, including hosting the Cecil Family Golden Hour Golf Classic for the UMC Level One Trauma Center in Tucson, Arizona and raise monies for Eve's Angels, and Ordinary Hero, among other organizations.

KEVIN CUMMINGS

Wide Receivers

Year at Arizona: 3rd

Years in Coaching: 10th

Kevin Cummings enters his third season with the Wildcats in 2023 after joining head coach Jedd Fisch's staff as wide receivers coach in January 2021. He came to Arizona following four seasons at San Jose State in the same capacity.

In 2022, the Arizona Wildcats wide receivers had breakout seasons led by transfer Jacob Cowing who recorded 85 receptions marking the third-most in a single season in program history. Cowing also was one of two receivers to top 1,000 receiving yards (1,034). It marked the first time in program history that the Arizona Wildcats had two receivers surpass the 1,000 receiving yard mark in a single season. WR Dorian Singer led the team with 1,105 receiving yards, marking a career high and he was third on the team in receiving touchdowns (6).

Fellow receiver, Tetairoa McMillan, finished his freshman season with 39 catches for 702 yards and eight touchdowns. His 702 yards were the most ever by an Arizona freshman and his yardage and eight touchdown catches were tops among all FBS true freshmen during the regular season.

Arizona was 6th in the nation in passing offense averaging 318.4 passing yards per game and finished 21st in total offense with 461.9 total yards per game. The Wildcats featured the 48th-best scoring offense nationally, averaging 30.8 points per game.

These notable individual accomplishments propelled Arizona's offense into becoming one of the most improved in the nation. Arizona went from the 124th in the nation in scoring offense in 2021 to 48th (30.8 ppg) in 2022. Similarly, Arizona rose to 21st in the NCAA in total offense in 2022 after finishing 101st the year prior.

Arizona had seven players selected to All-Pac-12 Performance awards with six named Honorable Mention following the 2022 season. Singer earned All-Pac-12 Second Team and Cowing earned Honorable Mention.

In his first season leading the Wildcats wideouts in 2021, Cummings produced three receivers that hauled in 20+ receptions. The group was led by standout Stanley Berryhill III, who led the team in receptions (83) and yards (744) while earning All-Pac-12 honors. Wide receivers BJ Casteel (33) and Boobie Curry (21) also pulled in 20+ catches while the later led the group with three scoring grabs.

Cummings also played a key role in building Arizona's 2022 signing class that ranked second in the Pac-12 (22nd nationally) and included the first five-star signee in program history.

The Spartans finished the 2020 season with a mark of 7-1 while ranking in the top three of the Mountain West in total offense and passing. SJSU's offense placed wide out Bailey Gaither on the All-MW First Team as Tre Walker represented the Spartans' receiving core on the MW's All-Conference Second Team.

Spartan wide receivers were productive during the 2019 season as well under Cummings' guidance, accounting for 216 receptions and 17 touchdowns. Tre Walker was a First Team All-MW selection in 2019 and a member of the Biletnikoff Award watch list. SJSU's receivers helped propel the team to the top passing attack in the conference for the year.

Prior to his arrival in San Jose, Cummings spent three seasons as a quality control coach on the Oregon State coaching staff where he played as a wideout for the Beavers from 2011 to 2013.

Cummings was a three-year fixture in the slot for OSU in his 33 career games played. He finished his career with 52 catches for 627 yards and four touchdowns as the Beavers played in back-to-back bowls in 2012 and 2013.

After graduating from Oregon State in 2014 with a degree in Business Entrepreneurship, Cummings spent the 2014 season playing professionally with the Edmonton Eskimos and Ottawa Redblacks of the Canadian Football League.

Cummings is a Los Angeles native who was an all-league performer for Crespi High School. He and his wife, Nellie, have a daughter, Malia.

SCOTTIE GRAHAM

Running Backs

Year at Arizona: 3rd

Years in Coaching: 3rd

Former Ohio State Football captain and NFL running back Scottie Graham joined Jedd Fisch's coaching staff as running backs coach on January 4, 2021. He enters his third season with the Wildcats in 2023.

In 2022, the Wildcats saw three different running backs rush for over 60 attempts including senior Michael Wiley gaining a career-high 771 yards on a career-high 113 attempts for a team-leading eight rushing touchdowns (Career best). Arizona tailbacks did not fumble during 263 total carries. It marked the first time since 2015 that an Arizona tailback did not fumble.

The Wildcats also rushed for the most yards in a game in the Territorial Cup victory (280 yds) since a 312-yard performance against Texas Tech in 2019, encapsulating a span of 48 games. Wiley rushed for 214 yards and three touchdowns marking the second-most rushing yards in Territorial Cup history, behind only Trung Canidate who gained 288 yards on the ground against ASU on Nov. 27, 1998. He also tied for the most rushing touchdowns in Territorial Cup history with three. (Candidate in 1998, Wilson in 2014, and Grand in 2016)

Following the 2022 season, Arizona had seven players selected to All-Pac-12 Performance awards with six named Honorable Mention including running back Michael Wiley. Wiley's 2022 season was fourth in Arizona history in rushing yards per attempt (6.8) and he rushed for the 15th most total yards in a single season in program history. His eight rushing touchdowns tied for the 12th most in a single season in Arizona football history. Wiley averaged 70.1 yards per game which was 14th in a single-season in program history.

Five back earned 60+ attempts during Graham's first season leading the unit in 2021, highlighted by Drake Anderson's team-best 384 yards on 87 carries. Michael Wiley was also a major contributor under Graham's tutelage, going for two scores and 302 yards on 91 totes. It was Wiley's 10-yard scoring scamper against Cal that secured the Wildcats first victory of the Jedd Fisch era.

Graham played a key role in building Arizona's 2022 signing class that ranked second in the Pac-12 (22nd nationally) and included the first five-star signee in program history.

In addition to a decorated playing career, Graham has extensive player development experience at the collegiate and NFL levels as Senior Associate A.D. for Student-Athlete Development and Welfare at Arizona State as well as key leadership positions with the NFL Players Association. He has spent the last six years at Arizona State as the lead administrator for student-athlete development and welfare while also supporting the academic and operational missions of a variety of Sun Devil programs.

Prior to his arrival in Tempe, Graham spent sixteen years with the NFLPA. His tenure with the league began in 1998 as Regional Director before advancing to Director of Player Engagement in 2010. Graham's duties and accomplishments with the Player's Association reached across the organization. He worked with current and former players, as well as key stakeholders, on a wide range of matters, including multimedia rights, marketing, licensing and sponsorships among others. The two-time Ohio State graduate also played a pivotal role in the ratification of the NFL's $47.1 billion Collective Bargaining Agreement in 2006 while enhancing player benefits and raising money for Native Vision Life Skills Camp charity for Native American children in the Southwest.

Graham assisted in the organization and management of prominent events, which included the NFL Draft Combine, Rookie Symposium, Board of Player Representative Meetings and Former Players Convention among others.

With a NFL career of six seasons, Graham made his rookie debut with the New York Jets during the 1992 season before spending four years with the Minnesota Vikings. The running back broke a Vikings' record for rushing yards in consecutive games with 166 yards versus the Kansas City before rushing for 139 against the Packers in 1993. Graham rushed for 1,267 yards in the NFL without recording a fumble in his six seasons and received the Ed Block Courage Award in 1996.

The Long Beach, New York native was a high school All-American in football, wrestling and lacrosse before becoming a three-year starter at running back for Ohio State. Voted a captain in his senior season, Graham ran for 1,768 yards and 19 touchdowns for the Buckeyes from 1988 to 1991.

Graham holds a pair of degrees from Ohio State, graduated with a Bachelor's in Education and Sport Leadership in 1991 before earning his Master's degree in Black Studies in 1996. He and his wife, Mary, have two children, Mylek and Marika.

RICKY HUNLEY

Defensive Line

Year at Arizona: 3rd

Years in Coaching: 24th

Ricky Hunley was hired by head coach Jedd Fisch to serve as the Wildcats defensive line coach on December 31, 2020. Hunley, who was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1998, brings over two decades of college and NFL coaching experience to his new role in Tucson.

Hunley played linebacker for the Wildcats from 1980-83, during which time he was a two-time consensus All-American, three-time First Team All-Pac-10 Conference selection, and the 1983 Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year. During his time in Tucson, Hunley tallied 566 tackles, a mark that to this day stands as the best career mark in program history. Hunley also hauled in 12 interceptions from the linebacker spot during his career, tied for 10th most in school history.

In 1998 Hunley was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame, making him the first player in Arizona Football history to earn the prestigious honor.

Hunley's previous coaching stop saw him leading the Memphis Tigers defensive line from 2014 to 2015. Under his guidance the 2014 Tigers ranked third in the American Athletic Conference in rushing defense while the 2015 squad ranked fourth in the conference with 26 sacks in 13 games.

His time in Memphis was preceded by 10 seasons in the professional coaching ranks, including time with the NFL's Oakland Raiders (linebackers, 2011), Cincinnati Bengals (linebackers, 2003-07), and Washington Redskins (defensive line, 2002) in addition to three years with the United Football League's California Redwoods/Sacramento Mountain Lions (defensive coordinator, 2009-11).

Hunley began his coaching journey as a graduate assistant at USC from 1992-93 under head coaches Larry Smith and John Robinson. He then spent seven years in the Big Eight/12 at Missouri coaching the defensive line and linebackers while earning the designation of associate head coach for his final three years with the Tigers. Hunley also spent one year coaching defensive line at Florida in 2001.

Ricky and his wife, Camille, have two daughters.

JASON KAUFUSI

Defensive Ends & Outside Linebackers

Year at Arizona: 2nd

Years in Coaching: 15th

Kaufusi came from UCLA where he was the outside linebackers coach for three seasons from 2019-21.

During the 2022 season, the Wildcats forced 16 turnovers marking an improvement of 10 turnovers from 2021 helping Arizona to a win improvement of four games. It marked the third largest win improvement in program history jumping from 1-11 in 2021 to 5-7 in 2022. Arizona landed former five-star linebacker Justin Flowe (Oregon) during the early signing period for the 2023 recruiting class. Kaufusi helped the Wildcats secure 16 defensive signees on early signing day to add depth and talent to the defense.

In 2021, Kaufusi coached alongside Arizona defensive coordinator Johnny Nansen and helped the UCLA defense rank second in the Pac-12 in sacks per game (2.2) and rushing defense (124.2) while also finishing 21st in the nation in 4th-down pct. defense (40%). UCLA's rushing defense ranked 26th nationally.

In the 2020 campaign, UCLA ranked eighth in the nation and led the Pac-12 in sacks per game (3.29) as the defensive unit surrendered just shy of 50 yards per contest less than 2019. Opponents averaged 3.6 yards per carry vs. the Bruins in 2020, which was a Pac-12 low.

In his first season with the Bruins, he coached Josh Woods who put up career-high numbers across the board in tackles, sacks and tackles for loss and was named a second-team all-conference selection by Associated Press. Woods led the defense in sacks (4.5) as the team upped its quarterback sack totals from 11 to 26 in one season. The outside linebacker group produced 17.0 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks.

Prior to his time at UCLA, Kaufusi spent two seasons at Nevada in 2017 and 2018 where he coached the defensive line. In 2018, Nevada played in a bowl game for the first time in three seasons and he coached Korey Rush, who was named first-team All-Mountain West while ranking second in the league in tackles for loss per game (1.3). In his first season at Nevada, the Wolf Pack defensive line combined for 15.5 of the team's 23 sacks on the season.

In 2016, Kaufusi served as the team's defensive coordinator at Weber State, where he helped the Wildcats advance to the FCS playoffs for the first time in seven years. Under Kaufusi's leadership, the Wildcats led the Big Sky in passing defense in 2016, allowing just 193.5 yards per game. The Wildcats also had five players on defense earn Big Sky All-Conference honors. In 2014 and 2015, Kaufusi coached defensive ends and helped the 2015 unit lead the Big Sky in total defense. In 2010 and 2011, Kaufusi was on the Weber State coaching staff as an assistant coach in charge of the defensive ends.

Kaufusi spent time as an administrative assistant at his alma mater, Utah, under Kyle Whittingham in 2009 where he assisted with the cornerbacks. That season, the Utah secondary ranked 14th in the nation in pass defense while the defense was ranked 19th nationally.

He began his coaching career as an assistant at Cottonwood High School in Salt Lake City from 2004-07. He was in charge of the defensive line for the Colts and oversaw academics and assisted with strength and conditioning for the team.

Kaufusi signed to play football at Utah in February 1997, but left to serve a LDS Church mission to Panama before beginning his collegiate career. He joined the Utes for the 2000 season under head coach Ron McBride and then defensive coordinator Kyle Whittingham and was voted the Co-Mountain West Freshman of the Year after totaling 63 tackles. He also earned honorable mention all-conference honors with eight sacks and started nine games. Kaufusi went on to earn first-team All-Mountain West honors in both 2001 and 2002. As a senior in 2003, he was a pre-season All-America candidate and on the watch lists for the Bronco Nagurski Trophy and Outland Trophy awards, but an injury sidelined him for the season.

A native of Salt Lake City, Kaufusi attended East High School where he was named the 1996 Utah 4A Player of the Year and led the Leopards to a 13-0 record and the Class 4A state title. He recorded 16 quarterback sacks and caught 17 passes for 327 yards while playing tight end.

Jason was the fourth Kaufusi to play at the University of Utah, following the steps of his brothers Doug, Henry and Jeff. He is the father of three daughters, Taliana, Malia and Kimari, and a son, Ammon.

JORDAN PAOPAO

Tight Ends / Special Teams

Year at Arizona: 3rd

Years in Coaching: 16th

Jordan Paopao, who has spent nearly a decade coaching in the Pac-12 Conference, was named Arizona's tight ends coach on January 4, 2021. He enters his third season with the Wildcats in 2023. Prior to joining Arizona in the winter of 2021, Paopao spent the 2020 season as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at UNLV after nearly a decade on staff with the Washington Huskies.

In 2022, he helped Tanner McLachlan produce one of the top performances in a single season by an Arizona tight end in program history. McLachlan was fourth on the team in receiving yards (456), a mark that is second all-time among tight ends in Arizona football history. He also made 33 catches, a mark that is second among tight ends in program history. McLachlan finished 12th nationally in receiving yards, 13th in yards per game (39.2), and 14th nationally in receptions (33) among the nation's tight ends. His total yard output trailed only Rob Gronkowski's 672 receiving yards in 2008.

Paopao's tenure in Seattle began as a graduate assistant, working with the tight ends, during the 2011 and 2012 seasons. His elevation to the full-time assistant coach with the tight ends, prior to the 2013 season, began a seven-year run of heralded positional and team successes. Austin Seferian-Jenkins, a second-round selection in the 2014 NFL Draft, would leave the program holding nearly every season and career record by a tight end in school history, which included career receptions, career yards, career touchdowns, single-season receptions and single-season yards. Seferian-Jenkins was the 2013 Mackey Award winner as the nation's best tight end while also earning Third Team AP All-American and Second Team All-Pac-12 honors in his final season on Montlake.

Three Husky tight ends under Paopao's tutelage would be drafted during time in Seattle: Austin Seferian-Jenkins (Second Round) in 2014, Will Dissly (Fourth Round) in 2018 and Drew Sample (Second Round) in 2019. The position group played a key part in UW leading the Pac-12 in total yards in 2016 and finishing second in 2018 and 2013. The Huskies would also finish in the top three in the conference in points per game on three separate occasions during Paopao's tenure. He was a part of Washington staffs that won 78 games, a pair of Pac-12 championships and played in nine bowl games.

Paopao spent the 2010 season as Running Game Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach at Azusa Pacific after two seasons as Recruiting Assistant under Jim Harbaugh at Stanford.

After a standout prep career at El Camino High in Oceanside, California, Paopao played at University of San Diego under Jim Harbaugh. A three-time Mid-Major All-American and All-Pioneer Selection for the Toreros at center. He graduated with a bachelor's degree from USD in 2008. Paopao is the son of former UCLA football standout Tony Paopao and nephew of CFL quarterback Joe Paopao. He and his wife, Kristin, have one son, Jordan Jr.

JOHN RICHARDSON

Cornerbacks

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: 13th

John Richardson joins the Arizona Football Coaching staff as Cornerbacks Coach after spending two seasons with Washington State in the same role as well as serving as the recruiting coordinator and Assistant Head Coach.

In his first season in Pullman, the Washington State defense produced four All-Pac-12 Conference selections including cornerback Jaylen Watson, who earned honorable mention and saw the Cougars lead the league with eight forced fumbles in a shortened 2020 season.

Richardson, who owns 12 years of college coaching experience, arrived at Washington State after spending the previous six seasons as the cornerbacks coach for the University of Wyoming. Richardson helped the 2019 Cowboys finish sixth in the country in red zone defense, No. 11 in the country in rush defense (107.1) and scoring defense (17.8), No. 40 in tackles-for-loss (83) and No. 43 in total defense. Senior cornerback Tyler Hall capped his career earning All-Mountain West Conference honorable mention for the second straight season.

In 2018, Wyoming's defense was among the best in the nation, finishing the season No. 19 in total defense (326.2), No. 25 in rushing defense (129.5), No. 28 in scoring defense (22.0) and No. 32 in pass defense (196.7). Hall earned All-MWC Honorable Mention as a junior in 2018.

The 2017 Cowboy defense became one of the best groups in the country as they led the country in takeaways (38), ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.5), were first in fumbles recovered (18), second in interceptions (20), eighth in defensive touchdowns scored (4), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9) and No. 23 in total defense (335.2). Richardson coached second-team All-Mountain West cornerback Rico Gafford who went on to play in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl and signed a free-agent contract with the Tennessee Titans.

As a unit, the 2016 Cowboy defense ranked first in the country with five defensive touchdowns, No. 10 with 25 takeaways, No. 15 with 12 fumble recoveries, No. 22 with 15 interceptions including five from Richardson's cornerbacks. In 2015, Richardson coached a Wyoming defense that ranked No. 26 in the nation in fewest passing yards allowed (196.9).

Prior to coming to Wyoming, Richardson coached the North Dakota State cornerbacks in 2012-13. He was a member of the NDSU staff from 2009-13, spending the 2009-10 seasons as a student assistant before becoming a graduate assistant coach in 2011. During his time on the NDSU coaching staff, the Bison won three consecutive national titles in 2011-13.

From 2011-13, Richardson helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship, tying both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories.

As a coach at North Dakota State (2011-13), Richardson helped the Bison lead the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons, holding opponents to only 12.7 ppg in 2011, 11.5 ppg in 2012 and only 11.3 ppg in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked third in the FCS in total defense (255.9); second in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.5), third in rushing defense (91.3) and eighth in passing yards allowed (164.6). In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU led the country in total defense (234.5), allowed the fewest first downs (12.6), ranked second in pass defense (140.6) and fourth in rushing defense (93.9).

In 2012-13, Richardson coached Consensus First Team All-America cornerback Marcus Williams. Williams signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Texans following the 2014 NFL Draft and defensive back Bryan Shepherd also signed as a free agent with the Washington Redskins following the 2014 NFL Draft.

Richardson was a two-year starter at cornerback for NDSU (2007-08) where he made 85 tackles over his two-year career, 19 pass breakups, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries. He began his college career in his home state of California at Mt. San Antonio Community College.

DUANE AKINA

Senior Defensive Assistant/Secondary

Year at Arizona: 1st (15th overall season)

Years in Coaching: 42

Duane Akina returns to the Arizona Football program as a Senior Defensive Assistant in charge of the secondary. Akina has over 42 years of coaching experience in college and professional football.

Akina is the latest member of Fisch's staff with ties to previous regimes at Arizona, joining safeties coach Chuck Cecil, defensive line coach Ricky Hunley, high school relations coordinator Brandon Sanders, and advisor Tedy Bruschi.

As the secondary coach at Arizona, Akina helped guide the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" defensive attack, one of the nation's most aggressive and productive groups. His prize pupils were Darryll Lewis, the 1990 Jim Thorpe Award winner, and Chris McAlister, a finalist for the Thorpe Award and winner of the Mosi Tatupu National Special Teams Player of the Year award in 1998. Lewis was a Pro Bowler for the San Diego Chargers and played 10 seasons in the NFL. McAlister, meanwhile, earned a spot in the 2004 Pro Bowl and was a member of the 2000 Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens.

During his time as offensive coordinator, Akina guided some of the Wildcats' most productive offenses. In 1994, he helped develop the UA offense into a unit that recorded more than 200 yards passing per game. Arizona's offense registered 2,211 passing yards and 1,776 rushing yards that season, which marked the first time in a decade that the team had registered more yards passing than rushing. In 1995, Akina directed the Wildcats' passing attack to 204.3 yards per game, which at the time, ranked fifth on the school's all-time list.

Before Akina's 14-year career at Arizona, he spent five seasons as a defensive assistant under legendary Head Coach Dick Tomey at Hawaii, followed by one season with the CFL's Calgary Stampeders.

Akina has coached three Thorpe Award winners, six Thorpe finalists and 41 defensive backs who have played in the NFL -- including seven Pro Bowlers, nine Super Bowl participants and 12 All-Americans. Akina has coached in 26 bowl games.

In his first stint at Arizona, Akina held multiple roles, including defensive backs coach, associate head coach, defensive coordinator, and offensive coordinator. Following the 2000 season, Akina had a similar role under Mack Brown at Texas. Most recently, Akina worked for David Shaw as Stanford's defensive backs coach from 2014 to this past season.

Stanford (2014-22)

At Stanford (2014-22), Coach Akina mentored multiple All-Pac-12 honorees including Kyu Blue Kelly who earned second team honors with 13 pass defenses, including two interceptions in 2021. Two Cardinal defensive backs earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 in Malik Antoine and sophomore cornerback Kelly in 2020.

Stanford cornerback Paulson Adebo, a 2021 third-round pick of the New Orleans Saints, joined a long lineage of defensive backs mentored by Akina to be selected in the NFL Draft.

For much of the 2019 season, Akina's group dealt with injuries, as eight different defensive backs each started at least three games, including freshmen CB Kyu Blu Kelly (nine starts) and NB Jonathan McGill (six starts). Preseason All-American and first team All-Pac-12 performer Paulson Adebo finished third nationally in passes defended per game (1.4), but missed the final three games of the season. Adebo's 38 passes defended over the last two seasons are the most by a single player in a two-year stretch in program history.

In 2018, Akina's secondary was led by the All-American Adebo, who led the nation with a school record 24 passes defended as a sophomore in 2018.

All-American safety Justin Reid was a third-round NFL Draft selection by the Houston Texans in 2018 and was a pivotal part of a Cardinal defense in 2017 that ranked 12th nationally in passes intercepted (18) and ninth in turnovers (28). Reid was one of three All-Pac-12 defensive backs, joining Quenton Meeks and Brandon Simmons.

In 2016, the secondary included two fifth-year senior safeties who provided the cornerstone of a deep and athletic unit. All-Pac-12 honorable mention safety Dallas Lloyd accounted for a team-high five of Stanford's 14 interceptions, including a pair to help secure Stanford's Sun Bowl win over North Carolina. Lloyd's total ranked 13th nationally and second among Pac-12 defenders. He was joined on the All-Pac-12 team by honorable mention selections Quenton Meeks and Justin Reid.

The Cardinal led the Pac-12 and ranked eighth nationally with four defensive touchdowns in 2016 and returned three picks for scores. Stanford also finished 25th nationally in team passing efficiency defense (117.75), a figure that was good for fourth among conference teams.

Anchored by All-Pac-12 second team defensive back Ronnie Harris, Akina's secondary in 2015 included starting safeties Kodi Whitfield and Lloyd, who each transitioned from offense. The Cardinal posted the league's fifth-best passing efficiency defense (123.96) and third-best total defense (368.3). Stanford's secondary allowed only 6.76 yards/pass attempt while picking off eight, led by Meeks' team-best three interceptions. Meeks added a pick-six in the Rose Bowl win over Iowa.

The Cardinal tied for fifth in the Pac-12 in pass breakups (51).

In Akina's first season in 2014, Stanford finished second nationally in scoring defense and eighth in passing defense. The Cardinal allowed only one passing score in nine games, including a stretch of five with zero. Stanford forced the same number of interceptions as passing touchdowns allowed (12).

Strong safety Jordan Richards led the Cardinal with three interceptions and forced three fumbles, and was awarded the 2014 National Football Foundation's Scholar-Athlete Award. Richards was a first team All-Pac-12 selection and finished his career with nine interceptions.

University of Texas (2001-2013)

Akina coached with the University of Texas from 2001 to 2013 with the University of Texas. In 2003, the Longhorns ranked ninth nationally in pass defense (177.3 ypg) and third in completion percentage allowed (47.2). CB Nathan Vasher was a Thorpe Award semifinalist, earned first-team All-Big 12 honors and tied the oldest-standing mark on the UT record book with his 17th career INT. He also broke the UT record for career pass breakups with 64.

After being named co-defensive coordinator in 2004, Akina helped guide a defense that finished 18th in scoring defense (17.9), 16th in rushing defense (107.4), 32nd in turnover margin (+5) and 23rd in total defense (320.1) in the country.

Under Akina's direction, Huff became a member of the Jim Thorpe Award watch list and three of the four starters in the secondary were named to All-Big 12 teams.

The pattern continued in 2005 as Akina led a defense and secondary that ranked fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense (96.7), eighth in pass defense (172.0 ypg), eighth in scoring defense (16.4 ppg) and 10th in total defense (302.9 ypg). Akina also mentored Huff as Texas' first-ever Jim Thorpe Award winner and produced three All-Big 12 performers out of the secondary.

Despite losing two players who wound up starting for their NFL teams in Huff (Raiders) and Cedric Griffin (Vikings), Akina continued to show his ability to develop great talent in 2006. He helped Aaron Ross become Texas' second consecutive Thorpe Award winner, while also earning various publication's Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. Safety Michael Griffin also capped his outstanding career with All-America honors.

The duo of Michael Griffin and Ross went on to be drafted back-to-back in the first round, 19th by the Titans and 20th by the Giants, respectively. Both earned starting positions with Ross and the Giants advancing to the Super Bowl. Tarell Brown was the third DB drafted that year (UT first since 1984), as he was chosen in the fifth round by the 49ers.

In 2007, Akina guided a Texas defense that was sixth-best in the nation against the run (93.4 ypg). Safety Marcus Griffin earned first-team All-Big 12 honors and was named first-team All-America by ESPN.com.

Akina returned his full focus to the defensive backs in 2008. With only one returning starter in CB Ryan Palmer, Akina guided the emergence of two freshmen at the starting safety positions. By season's end, Earl Thomas was named first-team Freshman All-America by the Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and College Football News, while Blake Gideon earned second-team honors from College Football News. Palmer earned second-team All-Big 12 honors, and the unit helped Texas rank second in the Big 12 in pass efficiency defense.

In 2009, Akina guided a secondary that helped the defense lead the nation in interceptions (25), rank 10th in pass efficiency defense and 19th in passing yards allowed. It also featured the Longhorns' third Thorpe Award finalist in five years in consensus All-America honoree S Earl Thomas, who led the nation in passes defended and tied for second in interceptions with a UT record eight. Thomas also tied the UT single-season record with two INT returned for TDs.

During the 2010 season, the Longhorns ranked sixth in the nation in both pass defense (161.6 ypg) and total defense (300.2 ypg). Cornerbacks Curtis Brown and Aaron Williams both earned second-team All-Big 12 honors, while S Blake Gideon was tabbed honorable mention All-Big 12. Three defensive backs from last year's team - Williams, Brown and CB Chykie Brown - were selected in the 2011 NFL Draft in the second, third and fifth rounds, respectively.

In 2011, Akina's group once again helped Texas lead the Big 12 in pass defense, holding teams to 209.9 yards per game, while also leading the Big 12 and ranking 10th nationally in pass efficiency defense. The secondary featured two successful young cornerbacks as sophomore Carrington Byndom and true freshman Quandre Diggs tied for 12th in the NCAA in passes defended. Diggs earned Big 12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year and CBSSports.com Freshman All-America honors while also recording four interceptions and two caused fumbles. Junior Kenny Vaccaro was a first team All-Big 12 selection as well with Akina's guidance, while senior S Blake Gideon completed his career starting all 52 games in which Texas played in his career. Gideon and S Christian Scott both signed free agent contracts in the NFL.

Akina again guided Vaccaro to first-team All-Big 12 honors in 2012 for a defense that had 15 interceptions and 35 pass breakups. The unit allowed just 212.0 passing yards per game despite facing five of the nation's top 10 passing offenses. Vaccaro was then a first-round pick of the Saints.

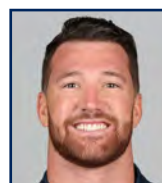

Akina joined the UT program after spending the previous 14 seasons at Arizona, where he served as the associate head coach and was tabbed defensive coordinator in December 2000. During his tenure at Arizona, he was a versatile coach who worked with both sides of the ball. Akina spent his final five seasons as defensive backs coach and nine of his 14 seasons working with the Wildcats' secondary. He also was UA's offensive coordinator from 1992-95.

Akina joined the University of Arizona staff in January 1987 after spending a season as defensive backs coach with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. Prior to that, he spent five years as an assistant coach at the University of Hawaii. Akina coached the defensive backs in 1981-82 and '84-85 and tutored the outside linebackers in 1983 at UW.

A native of Honolulu, Akina is a 1979 graduate of the University of Washington. He earned three letters as a quarterback, and upon completing his eligibility, he served as a graduate assistant coach at UW. Akina worked with the Huskies' quarterbacks in 1979-80.

Hawaii's Prep Athlete of the Year at Honolulu's Punahou High School in 1974-75, he was a three-time all-league selection as a quarterback in football and a guard in basketball.

Akina and his wife, Donna, have five children, Kainoa, Keoni, Dionicia, Alli and Kamalii. Kainoa has a wife, Daya.

TYLER OWENS

Director of Strength and Conditioning
Year at Arizona: 3rd

Owens joined the Wildcats in January of 2021 from Alabama where was a part of five national championships as a strength coach and linebacker for the Crimson Tide.

Owens joined Coach Nick Saban's staff as assistant strength and conditioning coach prior to the 2015 season as Alabama won three national championships and four SEC titles while amassing an immaculate record of 79-6. During his time on the strength staff, Owens helped train 48 NFL draft picks and a pair of Heisman Trophy winners.

He played for and worked under longtime Alabama strength coach Scott Cochran who added him to the strength staff after graduating from Alabama. During his time with Cochran and current Crimson Tide head strength coach David Ballou, Owens was responsible for coaching, instruction and facilitation of training and assisting with the operation of the fourth quarter conditioning program among other duties.

Owens was a linebacker at Alabama from 2011 to 2014 as the Crimson Tide captured a pair of national championships and two SEC titles. The Nick Saban-led teams would post a record of 48-6 with Owens on the roster.

A native of Clay, Alabama, Owens played his prep football at Clay-Chalkville High School and graduated from Alabama with a degree in Kinesiology and Exercise Science.

TEDY BRUSCHI

Senior Advisor to the Head Football Coach
Year at Arizona: 3rd

Bruschi, a two-time All-American and Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year at Arizona, also serves as a lead NFL analyst for ESPN since his retirement in 2009.

As Senior Advisor to the Head Football Coach, Bruschi will serve as a member of the executive football management team while serving as a consultant with the entire football staff. He will also assist the head coach in alumni relations, fundraising, social justice initiatives and student-athlete development off the field.

Bruschi's legacy as a Wildcat is as decorated as it is everlasting as one of four Wildcats to be enshrined in the NFF College Hall of Fame. A consensus All-American in 1994 and 1995, Bruschi was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and won the Morris Trophy as the league's best defensive lineman. He ended his college career in 1995 with 52 sacks, which tied for the most in NCAA history. The California native was a key fixture in Arizona's "Desert Swarm Defense" that led the nation in scoring defense in 1992 and rushing defense in 1993 as the Wildcats recorded their first 10-win season in program history and defeated Miami in the Fiesta Bowl with Bruschi earning MVP honors.

He was selected in the third round by New England in the 1996 NFL Draft and spent all 13 seasons of his NFL career with the Patriots franchise. Bruschi won three Super Bowls with New England, was voted to the Pro Bowl in 2004 and was named the 2005 NFL Comeback Player of the Year after recovering from a stroke. His philanthropic work includes the creation of "Tedy's Team" that raises awareness for the American Stroke Association, in which Bruschi has run two Boston marathons in support of. He was also inducted into the Patriots' Hall of Fame in 2013.

Director of Player and Community Relations
Year at Arizona: 5th

Former Arizona Wildcats captain and All-Pac-10 performer Syndric Steptoe joined the Arizona Football staff prior to the 2019 season as the program's Director of Player Development. Steptoe played at Arizona from 2006-2009, before playing in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns. Steptoe previously worked in the Arizona Athletic Department as the associate director of C.A.T.S. Life Skills.

LAUREN VOSSLER

Director of Travel and Football Logistics
Year at Arizona: 5th

Vossler enters her seventh season with the Wildcats, and her fifth as a fulltime staff member, in 2023. She was promoted to Assistant Director of Football Operations in May of 2020 and promoted to Director of Travel and Football Logistics in January of 2023. She graduated from Arizona in May 2019 and served as a Football Recruiting and Player Personnel Intern for the program during her undergrad tenure. Following graduation, Vossler was hired full time as the Wildcats Coordinator of On-Campus Recruiting. She was promoted to her current position in May 2020.

MATT DOHERTY

Director of Player Personnel
Year at Arizona: 3rd

Matt Doherty is entering his third year as director of player personnel at Arizona. Doherty previously worked at Miami and North Carolina State in similar capacities and has also been a recruiting coordinator at Michigan.

BRANDON SANDERS

Coordinator of Football Alumni & High School Relations
Year at Arizona: 3rd

Sanders enters his second season and has been a pivotal part of Arizona Football's outreach, alumni and community relations and operations. He also works closely with the athletic department's "A-Club" for Letterwinners while supporting the program's on-campus recruiting activities and player development initiatives.

He was a two-time First Team All-Pac-10 selection as a safety for the Wildcats in 1994 and 1995 as Arizona would go on to finish the 1993 season ranked number one nationally in total defense. By the time his college career ended, Sanders ranked third in school history in pass breakups while amassing 199 total tackles, five sacks and nine interceptions in 46 career starts. He went on to play three seasons with the New York Giants of the NFL before playing in NFL Europe and the XFL.

ROBERT C. ROBBINS, M.D.*President, The University of Arizona

7th Year

24th UA President

Dr. Robert C. Robbins assumed his position as the 22nd president of the University of Arizona on June 1, 2017. Previously, he served as president and CEO of the Texas Medical Center (TMC) in Houston from 2012 to 2017. In this role, he significantly enhanced TMC's commitment to collaboration, introducing five cross-institutional research initiatives centered on innovation, genomics, regenerative medicine, health policy and clinical research.

Prior to his time in Houston, Dr. Robbins served as professor and chairman of the Department of Cardiothoracic Surgery at Stanford University School of Medicine, founding director of the Stanford Cardiovascular Institute, president of the International Society of Heart and Lung Transplantation, president of the Western Thoracic Surgical Association, president of the American Heart Association Western States Affiliate, president of the Bay Area Society of Thoracic Surgeons, and chair of the American Heart Association Cardiovascular Surgery and Anesthesia Council, among other roles. In 2016 he served as president of the American Heart Association Southwest Affiliate.

An internationally recognized cardiac surgeon, Robbins has focused his clinical efforts on acquired cardiac diseases with a special expertise in the surgical treatment of congestive heart failure and cardiothoracic transplantation. His research work includes the investigation of stem cells for cardiac regeneration, cardiac transplant allograft vasculopathy, bioengineered blood vessels, and automated vascular anastomotic devices. Robbins is the author of more than 300 peer-reviewed articles and a former guest editor of the Circulation Surgical Supplement.

In addition to his role at the UA, Dr. Robbins serves on the boards of the Arizona Commerce Authority, Southern Arizona Leadership Council, Tucson Metro Chamber of Commerce, United Way of Tucson and Southern Arizona, and the Greater Phoenix Economic Council. He is also a member of the Chairman's Circle of Sun Corridor, Inc., and a member of Greater Phoenix Leadership. While at TMC, Robbins served on the Houston branch of the Dallas Federal Reserve board, the board of directors of the Welch Foundation, and the American Heart Association Southwest Affiliate in 2016. He served on an independent blue ribbon committee to evaluate the Veterans Affairs health system, and the World Affairs Council of Greater Houston honored him as the 2016 International Citizen of the Year.

His educational background includes a B.S. in chemistry from Millsaps College, medical degree from the University of Mississippi, general surgical training at the University of Mississippi, cardiothoracic training at Stanford University, postdoctoral research at Columbia University and the National Institutes of Health, and congenital heart surgical fellowships at Emory University and Royal Children's Hospital.

DAVE HEEKE*Vice President & Director, Athletics

7th Year

Dave Heeke (pronounced Hee-key) was named Vice President and Director of Athletics at the University of Arizona in February of 2017. Heeke's vision for Arizona Athletics centers around a culture of excellence, a focus on a first-class student-athlete experience, championship-caliber competitive performances in competition and in the classroom; as well as enhancing fan experience and providing a tremendous workplace environment. His drive as a leader of a nationally-elite athletics program also aims to support the University of Arizona in its mission and goals as a point of pride around the nation. Making strategic enhancements in the operation of the athletics department has been Heeke's calling card for building a thriving and secure foundation for growth and sustainable success.

The impact of the Heeke era on Arizona Athletics was immediate with an overhaul of facilities, groundbreaking academic achievements, the elevation of the department's fundraising to unprecedented heights, and the enhancement of the overall organizational, employee focus and culture.

The athletics department continued to thrive in Heeke's fifth year at Arizona as the 2021-22 year raised the bar for excellence in all facets. Arizona student-athletes continued to reach historic heights in the classroom, posting a 3.157 overall semester GPA in Fall of 2021 that marked the highest Fall semester GPA in department history. Fall of 2021 also gave Arizona Athletics its seventh consecutive year of breaking its own overall semester GPA record for the fall. The department's 3.089 overall GPA for Spring 2022 was the second-highest spring semester GPA in Arizona history. The athletics program also posted its second-highest Graduate Success Rate (GSR) score ever with an 86 percent while tying the department record for teams with perfect APR scores at 10.

Championship excellence in competition became another hallmark of the 2021-22 with Arizona winning a trio of Pac-12 team championships, which included Arizona Men's Basketball's sweep of the regular season and conference tournament titles under first-year head coach Tommy Lloyd. Arizona Men's Tennis won its first-ever Pac-12 championship as the 2022 regular season champions in addition to Wildcat student-athletes winning four individual Pac-12 championships. Arizona Softball returned to the Women's College World Series under first-year head coach Caitlin Lowe as she became the first coach to lead a team to the WCWS in her first year as a head coach since the NCAA Tournament expanded in 1988 and the only woman to accomplish it.

Arizona Athletics posted another banner year of fundraising success in 2021-22, which was punctuated by the department's official announcement of the new $14.8 million William M. "Bill" Clements Golf Center. The new, state-of-the-art home facility for Arizona's men's and women's golf programs will be constructed at Tucson Country Club.

Heeke continued his nationally-recognized leadership and service to college athletics with an appointment to the prestigious NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee in 2022, becoming just the third athletic director in Arizona history to serve on the committee.

During the unprecedented challenges of the global COVID-19 pandemic, Arizona Athletics became a national leader in testing, tracing and treatment while overseeing a 2020-21 year that capped unrivaled championship success in a variety of sports as well as in the classroom. The athletics department's cohesive collaboration with University of Arizona campus partners and the Pima County Health Department not only developed comprehensive re-entry strategies, but also allowed Arizona student-athletes and staff to be a part of a gold standard testing program that reduced cancellations and postponements of competition. The athletics department was able to complete its strategic and phased approach to fan re-entry during the spring and become the first Pac-12 program to announce plans for full capacity for the 2021 season.

By the end of the 2020-21 academic year, Arizona Athletics had posted one of its most successful years as a department with wholesale athletic and academic success across its 21 programs. Arizona Women's Basketball's historic run to its first ever NCAA Championship game appearance solidified the program's position as one of the elite programs nationally. Trips to the Women's College World Series by Arizona Softball and the College World Series by Arizona Baseball bookended a dominant spring athletically. Those trips to Oklahoma City and Omaha followed the first Sweet 16 appearance ever by Arizona Men's Tennis and Arizona Women's Golf becoming the only program in the nation to reach the semifinals of match play at the NCAA Championships in 2018, 2019 and 2021. Wildcat programs would end the year with its highest finish in the Learfield Director's Cup standings in seven years.

Deep postseason runs at national championships capped successful spring seasons as three head coaches were named Pac-12 Coach of the Year while Arizona Baseball and Arizona Men's Golf won Pac-12 championships as well. Five Wildcats won six individual conference championships in diving and track and field while student-athletes would go on to earn a total of nearly 40 all-american accolades.

The athletic highlights of 2020-21 were rivaled by the department's continual record-breaking success in the classroom. Arizona student-athletes continued to reach new heights academically, culminating in the department's highest-ever overall semester GPA with a 3.172 in Spring 2021. The all-time high GPA mark followed Arizona Athletics setting a new department record in Graduate Success Rate (GSR) with an 87 percent in the latest NCAA-released data in the Fall of 2020.

Arizona's unparalleled success on the field and in the classroom in 2020-21 also saw Heeke provide strategic retainment of key head coaches with contract extensions, including Adia Barnes of Women's Basketball, Laura Ianello of Women's Golf, Jim Anderson on Men's Golf, Clancy Shields of Men's Tennis and John Court of Gymnastics. Other key coaching personnel decisions included the hiring of new head coaches in football, men's basketball, soccer, softball and baseball in 2020-21.

Beginning in September of 2018, Heeke led a transformative capital investment of $66 million as Arizona Athletics made critical facility enhancements with renovations of the east side of Arizona Stadium, Hillenbrand Aquatic Center, Hillenbrand Softball Stadium, McKale Center locker rooms and the construction of the Cole and Jeannie Davis Sports Center. These construction projects were built around enhancing the student-athlete experience, improving game day environment and creating dynamic landmarks for the University of Arizona campus. He also initiated a market assessment study to examine further renovations of Arizona Stadium while completing a master facility planning process for all of Arizona Athletics.

During Heeke's leadership, the department's development efforts have achieved some of the biggest fundraising years on record, including the powerful $8 million naming gift for the Cole and Jeannie Davis Sports Center. Arizona Athletics' fundraising efforts have surpassed its yearly fundraising goals every year since Heeke's arrival in Tucson. The high-level success of the Wildcat Club includes nearly $35 million raised in the 2019 fiscal year, which was one of the top three fundraising years in department history. Arizona has raised $100 million in the last three years that also included an anonymous gift of $5 million to begin the $66 million facility enhancements.

The 2017-18 and 2018-19 academic years were record-breaking years in the classroom for Wildcat student-athletes. The athletics department set numerous academic records that began with a 3.028 semester grade point average posted by student-athletes in the Spring of 2018, which was the highest fall or spring GPA ever posted at the time. Arizona student-athletes broke that record the following semester with a 3.057 GPA. The student-athlete cumulative GPA rose to a record-setting mark of 3.102 in the Spring of 2019. These marks included new semester record GPAs for nine of Arizona's programs. The two years of academic excellence by Arizona student-athletes marked the first time in history that the 3.0 cumulative GPA threshold was crossed.

Competitive success by Arizona Athletics' programs has delivered national and Pac-12 championships. Arizona Women's Golf won the 2018 National Championship with a thrilling victory over Alabama in sudden death to give the University of Arizona its 22nd national title. Arizona Men's Basketball won regular season conference titles and the Pac-12 Tournament in the same season in both the 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons, marking just the second time in Pac-12 history that a program has won four conference championships in two seasons.

The Wildcats continued their on-field excellence in 2018-19 as Arizona Women's Basketball won six consecutive games in convincing fashion en route to a WNIT championship. The spring success continued as Arizona Softball advanced to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City for the 23rd time in program history. Women's Golf, Men's Golf, Soccer, Volleyball and Gymnastics would also participate in postseason competition to round out another stellar year of Arizona Athletics.

In his first year on the job, Heeke expanded the staff, mission, and priority of the human resources department within athletics by hiring a Senior Associate Director of Athletics for Human Resources. Since then, a critical emphasis of the department's strategic plan is on the recruitment, retention, engagement and training of employees. The department has started a number of new initiatives focused on improving employee health and well-being while enhancing workplace culture. Another key area of emphasis has been the department's overall commitment and expansion of educational efforts on Title IX for staff and student-athletes. Currently 100 percent of department staff and student-athletes participate in annual training. The department has also worked with campus leaders to integrate fully with the University reporting processes and to increase awareness, understanding, and respect for the department's overall commitment to Title IX and gender equity.

In November of 2018, Heeke charged his department to initiate a comprehensive strategic planning process to define key values and initiatives that will direct organizational focus. Arizona Athletics introduced its first-ever comprehensive strategic plan "The Wildcat Way" in September of 2019. The department and the teams of faculty, coaches, staff, campus partners, and students who participated in the process surveyed over 160,000 stakeholders in order to effectively identify opportunities for growth and development. The result was a strategic plan that aligned its pillars, values, and initiatives with the recently completed University of Arizona institutional strategic plan. The alignment was an intentional effort to demonstrate the importance of the role athletics plays in supporting the University mission while it strives for excellence.

As part of the University and department strategic planning processes, athletics elected to adopt the University core values as the department's values. The lead value for the University and Arizona Athletics is "integrity". Since arriving at Arizona, Heeke has championed and been committed to creating a culture of integrity and compliance. In July of 2017, he hired a nationally recognized leader in the compliance field to head the department while growing the staff from three to six full-time compliance administrators. The expansion of personnel has allowed for an increased commitment to education, support, research, and reporting.

Another area of emphasis for Heeke has been prioritizing a culture of supporting diversity and inclusion throughout the athletics department. Heeke created the new position of Assistant Athletics Director for Diversity, Inclusion and Employee Engagement in September of 2019 to support the expanded emphasis and energy behind education, programming, and training for all staff and student-athletes. In addition to this position, he also supported the creation of a robust Inclusive Excellence Council within the department. This vital group focuses on the importance of diversity and inclusion programming, educational events, outreach and recruitment of new hires, understanding and appreciating diversity, cultivating an inclusive & safe environment, and more. There are now over 25 ICA staff members actively participating in making the mission of this initiative relevant in all aspects of the department and beyond. Most recently, the department launched a new initiative to support advancing women in college athletics through education, mentoring, networking, and engagement.

Heeke has developed a wide range understanding of college athletics that includes a number of vital roles. He has experience in department leadership, budget development, fundraising, compliance and sport supervision among other areas. As Vice President and Director of Athletics, he also has marquee experience in coaching hires and retentions, which includes extensions, renewals, enhancements, and very difficult changes when necessary to ensure stability and success in the department's long-term foundation of Wildcat head coaches. Heeke's work in this critical area includes hiring head coaches in football, swimming and diving, women's tennis and gymnastics while making other modifications and enhancements to all other sport coach contracts.

While Athletics Director at CMU, Heeke instilled his vision of a "Championship Culture," which included athletic success, academic excellence, national media exposure, record fundraising, and a commitment to facilities. The department was twice honored with the Cartwright Award, which recognizes the Mid-American Conference's top overall institution based on excellence in academics, athletics and citizenship. CMU earned the Reese Trophy, which honors the top MAC men's athletic program, three times, and finished as the runner-up for the Jacoby Trophy, which honors the top MAC women's athletic program, four times under Heeke's leadership. In addition, the football program qualified for bowl games in eight of his 11 years at CMU, while the men's basketball team won four MAC division championships and one overall title.

The athletic exploits of CMU's student-athletes were matched by their academic accomplishments. All of CMU's sport programs exceeded NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) standards, while the department posted an 81% Graduation Success Rate (GSR). The cumulative student-athlete GPA surpassed 3.0 for 11 consecutive years, and the Chippewas earned the MAC's Institutional Academic Achievement Award 10 times.

Facility upgrades and renovations for all sports were staples under Heeke's leadership at CMU, which were highlighted by his coordination of a private campaign for $22 million in renovations to the basketball arena and fitness center. The project included a complete renovation of the arena in the Rose Center, as well as the addition of a dynamic entryway and new practice facilities for basketball, volleyball and wrestling. Heeke oversaw the planning and design of a $6 million lacrosse and soccer stadium, which opened in the fall of 2015, as well as $10 million in renovations for other facilities including baseball, gymnastics and softball.

Heeke is no stranger to the Pac-12 Conference after 18 years at the University of Oregon where he assisted the athletics director with the daily operation of the Ducks' department of 17 sports and one of the largest budgets in the Pac-12. Heeke served on the AD's executive staff and was responsible for strategic planning and financial models. In addition to representing the AD at University and conference meetings, he managed all facets of internal operations, while being responsible for revenue generation through external operations units. He assisted in the $95 million football stadium expansion as well as the construction of a $14 million indoor football practice facility and a $5 million soccer stadium.

Heeke is a nationally recognized leader among college athletics directors. He was appointed to the then-NCAA Division I Athletic Director Advisory Group in June of 2013. One of just 11 Division I Athletic Directors nationwide to serve on the group, The group met periodically with NCAA President Mark Emmert and his staff to provide feedback and perspective on issues affecting DI athletics. Heeke has also been a member of the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee and the Division I Football Issues Committee. He twice served on the baseball committee, first from 2006-08 and again from 2010-15, serving as the chair for the 2014-15 season. He was also a part of the football committee from 2008-13, serving as chair in 2012-13.

An East Lansing, Michigan native, Heeke received a bachelor's degree from Albion College in 1985 and a master's degree from Ohio State University in 1987. At Albion, he was a co-captain of the baseball team and a member of the club hockey team. He was a three-sport athlete at East Lansing High School and received the Distinguished Alumni Award from the East Lansing Educational Foundation in 2007.

Heeke and his wife, Liz, have three boys, Max, Zach, Ryan, and daughter-in-law, Merissa.

About us — you and the university, that is

Universities are defined by their people, and you could say the people here were born to challenge “business as usual.” The University of Arizona existed before Arizona was a state. Our first graduating class in 1895 consisted of two women and one male.

Since then, we’ve learned that we’re better together. We do more when we work across backgrounds, skills and perspectives. That’s how we’ve become long-time partners with NASA, leaders in both the arts and sciences, and able to prepare students to succeed in a world where most of the jobs today’s kindergartners will have don’t even exist yet. We know how to converge.

OUR STORIES (just a few)

We only see opportunity.

Our position in the planetary sciences today has much to do with the vision and drive of planetary astronomer Gerard P. Kuiper. Kuiper is known as the father of planetary science, but during his time was a little bit of an outcast in his field.

Kuiper proposed there was a belt of small planets or comets orbiting beyond Neptune, even though none except Pluto had been found. Astronomers now refer to this region as the Kuiper belt.

Today, the university has been part of every planetary mission with NASA and when others proved just how hard it is to sample an asteroid, we came up with a better way to do it. The current UA-led OSIRIS-REx mission will bring home the biggest piece of space since the Apollo era.

Beyond curious.

Each year, cardiac arrest kills about 326,000 people in the United States, yet traditional CPR only offers a 7.8 percent survival rate.

In the early 1990s, UA cardiologist Dr. Gordon Ewy listened to a 911 recording of a woman giving her husband CPR. When he heard the woman ask the dispatcher why her husband opened his eyes when she pressed his chest but went to sleep when she did mouth-to-mouth, he developed chest-compression-only CPR, nearly doubling survival rates.

In a world that’s changing rapidly, we have a lot of questions. Like whether humans and robots could ever be friends? Or how we’ll cure ALS or Alzheimer’s? We’re confident we’ll deliver because discovery starts with a dream.

Driven by our history.

When President Kennedy said the U.S. will put a man on the moon, NASA called us because we were the only ones who understood the lunar surface.

Today, our country is looking to shape the future of medicine. Certain medicines work for some people but not for others. Why? And since genes, the environment and lifestyle can predict the diseases we’re susceptible to, we must create individualized and preventative medicine.

In 2015, then-President Barack Obama launched the Precision Medicine Initiative to change treatments designed for the average patient into individualized treatments. The University of Arizona is one of four academic health centers chosen to participate because of our expertise in genetics, our partnership with Banner Health and our ability to reach underserved populations who have been historically omitted from data collection and research.

In touch with our values.

When we say people are our strength, we mean it. In fact, in 2018 we earned the designation of Hispanic-Serving Institution from the U.S. Department of Education for our success in the enrollment of Hispanic students and in providing educational opportunities to them.

And we honor our commitments to the state of Arizona by serving the entire state. When farmers don’t know what is hurting their crops, or city planners are dealing with the future of water, they rely on the University of Arizona’s statewide network of knowledgeable staff to help solve their problems.

RECAP

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Jayden de Laura threw four touchdown passes, three to fellow transfer Jacob Cowing, and Arizona beat San Diego State 38-20 on a sizzling Saturday to spoil the debut of Snapdragon Stadium.

The Aztecs (0-1) waited two years for their new stadium to be built next to where 70,000-seat SDCCU Stadium once stood, and then were embarrassed by the Wildcats (1-0) on a 100-degree day. SDSU announced a sellout of 34,046. Many seats were empty at kickoff and the east stands, totally exposed to the sun, were mostly empty by the fourth quarter.

Arizona avenged a 38-14 loss to SDSU in its home opener last year during a 1-11 season. De Laura, who transferred from Washington State, completed 22 of 35 passes for 299 yards. He was intercepted once. Cowing, a transfer from UTEP, had eight catches for 152 yards.

The Wildcats sacked transfer Braxton Burmeister on the first play from scrimmage, forced SDSU to punt and then scored the stadium's first points on Tyler Loop's 25-yard field goal.

De Laura, the Pac-12 Freshman Offensive Player of the Year at Washington State last season, hit Cowing for on a 17-yard pass for a 10-0 lead and then found freshman Tetairoa McMillan on a 4-yarder to make it 17-3 midway through the second quarter.

SDSU pulled to 17-10 on Burmeister's 11-yard pass to Tyrell Shavers. The Aztecs had a great chance to tie the game after Noah Tumblyn intercepted de Laura at the 40. Chance Bell rumbled into the end zone from 25 yards, but the play came back on a holding penalty. Jaxen Turner intercepted Burmeister on the next play and returned it 20 yards to set up de Laura's 4-yard scoring pass to Cowing with 28 seconds left in the first half.

Arizona took the opening kickoff of the second half and moved 75 yards in five plays, with Cowing pulling in a 25-yard scoring pass for a 31-10 lead.

SDSU scored 10 points in just more than three minutes to close to 31-20. Punting from his own end zone, Arizona's Kyle Ostendorf booted the ball into a lineman's backside and Jaylon Armistead recovered for a touchdown. Jack Browning kicked a 23-yard field goal.

THE TAKEAWAY

Arizona looked nothing like the team that staggered to a 1-11 finish in coach Jedd Fisch's first season. The Wildcats reloaded with 50 new players, including 11 from the transfer portal. De Laura transferred from WSU after throwing for 2,796 yards and 23 touchdowns, while Cowing moved over from UTEP after tallying 1,354 yards receiving.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- The Wildcats 18-point margin of victory was their largest since beating Northern Arizona 65-41 (24 points) in 2019.
- De Laura's four touchdown passes are the most by an Arizona QB in their Wildcat debut since Anu Solomon threw four against UNLV in 2014.
- 3 TD by Cowing marked the first time a player making their Power Five debut scored three touchdowns since Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree in 2007.
- Going back through the 1996 season, McMillan is the only Arizona true freshman WR to catch a touchdown pass in his first career game.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Will Rogers threw for 313 yards and four touchdowns — two each to Austin Williams and Caleb Ducking — and Mississippi State beat Arizona 39-17 on Saturday night at Arizona Stadium.

It was a strange game for the Bulldogs, who looked like the were going to pull away multiple times before costly turnovers allowed Arizona to stay in the game. Ultimately, the defense was able to limit the damage from those miscues and Mississippi State was able to leave Tucson with a deceptively large advantage on the scoreboard.

Both teams finished with three turnovers.

Rogers finished 39-of-49 passing, completing 15 passes in a row at one point in the second half. Mississippi State finished with 426 total yards, including 106 on the ground.

Mississippi State (2-0) pushed ahead 25-10 early in the third quarter on a 5-yard touchdown pass from Rogers to Williams, capping an eight-play, 75-yard drive. It was one of many times that the Bulldogs clearly had the momentum.

But the Wildcats weren't done, taking advantage of a Mississippi State fumble to pull within 25-17 on the ensuing drive after a 2-yard touchdown pass from Jayden de Laura to Jacob Cowing.

Arizona was driving again later in the third quarter, but de Laura had a pass tipped at the line of scrimmage by Mississippi State's Tyrus Wheat. Teammate Nathaniel Watson plucked the ball out of the air and ran all the way to the Arizona 11. Four plays later, Rogers hit Williams for the pair's second touchdown of the night and a 32-17 lead.

De Laura — a transfer from Washington State — completed 23 of 45 passes for 220 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions.

It was the first meeting between the two programs.

Arizona (1-1) won the toss, elected to receive the kickoff, and that offensive confidence was rewarded with a quick touchdown drive. Michael Wiley ran 34 yards down the right sideline to the end zone for a 7-0 lead.

Mississippi State responded with the next 15 points and didn't trail again. The Bulldogs were helped by an ill-advised heave from de Laura, which turned into an interception and a touchdown on the ensuing drive.

Mississippi State took an 18-10 lead into halftime.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Through just two games, Jacob Cowing has pulled in four touchdown catches. He has already matched last year's top scoring threat through the air, running back Michael Wiley, who tallied four receiving TDs in 11 games played.
- Linebacker Jerry Roberts reached double-digit tackles against the Bulldogs to achieve the feat in a second consecutive game. Roberts previously had one double-digit tackle game in his career at Arizona (Utah 2021).
- Cornerback Treydan Stukes' interception in the second quarter was the first of his career. The Wildcats now have two interceptions on the year, halfway to the four they notched in 12 games last season.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Jayden de Laura threw for 229 yards and a touchdown, ran for another score, and Arizona rallied to beat North Dakota State 31-28 on Saturday night.

The Wildcats snapped North Dakota State's FBS win streak at six games, dating to 2010. The Bison have won nine out of the past 11 national championships at the FCS level and boast several NFL alumni — including quarterbacks Carson Wentz, Trey Lance and Easton Stick.

Arizona was trailing 28-24 midway through the fourth quarter but got a crucial stop on fourth-and-2 at its own 23 to flip momentum. The Wildcats then drove the field and took a 31-28 lead on de Laura's perfectly placed 22-yard touchdown pass to Jacob Cowing in the corner of the end zone.

Arizona's defense did the rest, holding NDSU's previously prolific running game in check. De Laura finished 20-of-29 passing.

North Dakota State's Hunter Luepke scored three touchdowns — two on the ground and one through the air. He ran for 115 yards, leading the Bison's 283-yard rushing attack.

NDSU came into Saturday's game with six straight wins over FBS programs, knocking off Kansas, Minnesota, Colorado State, Kansas State, Iowa State and No. 11 Iowa.

Luepke looked like he was going to be the hero on Saturday, plowing through the line of scrimmage for a 38-yard touchdown to give the Bison a 28-24 lead late in the third quarter. The 236-pound fullback was so excited during the celebration that he even bowled over teammate Jake Lippe during the celebration before helping him up.

But Arizona had one more rally left in the back-and-forth contest.

Arizona jumped ahead 7-0 in the first quarter on Michael Wiley's 6-yard touchdown run. North Dakota State tied it at 7-all later in the first when Cam Miller found Luepke all alone for a 31-yard touchdown pass.

The Bison looked like they were about to grab the lead in the second quarter, but Hunter Echols strip-sacked Miller at the Arizona 17 and the Wildcats were able to recover the fumble. It was one of many examples of an opportunistic Arizona defense that gave up 407 yards but came up big at crucial moments.

Arizona took advantage of the turnover, driving the field and grabbing a 14-7 lead on de Laura's 7-yard touchdown run. Once again, the Bison responded with Miller's 2-yard run with 50 seconds before halftime tied it at 14.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Arizona handed North Dakota State their first loss to an FBS team since dropping a 34-17 decision at Iowa State in 2009. The Bison had won six consecutive FBS matchups since 2010.
- The 392 yards of total offense generated by the Arizona offense are the most surrendered by the NDSU defense since South Dakota State went for 454 in April 2021, a span of 20 games.
- Quarterback Jayden de Laura, along with running backs Michael Wiley and Jonah Coleman, all rushed for touchdown on Saturday night. Three rushing scores is the most for the Wildcats since punching in three on Nov. 2, 2019 against Oregon State.

RECAP

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Jaydn Ott ran for 274 yards and three touchdowns and California opened Pac-12 play with a 49-31 victory over Arizona on Saturday.

Ott scored on a 73-yard run on the second play from scrimmage, an improbable 18-yarder in the third quarter after he had appeared to be stopped for a short gain, and then another 72-yarder to ice it late in the fourth.

Ott had the third most rushing yards in school history, trailing only Jahvid Best's 311 against Washington in 2008 and Jerry Drew's 283 against Oregon State in 1954.

Jack Plummer added three TD passes for the Golden Bears (3-1, 1-0), who won their sixth straight home game. It's their longest winning streak at Memorial Stadium since a nine-gamer in 2008-09.

Cal also ended a six-game skid against Arizona (2-2, 0-1) by beating the Wildcats for the first time since 2009.

Jayden de Laura threw for 401 yards and two touchdowns for the Wildcats (2-2, 0-1), who had no answers defensively and lost their 12th straight conference road game.

A year after Arizona beat COVID-depleted Cal 10-3 at home for its only win in 2021, the teams exceeded that point total after both teams scored touchdowns on the opening drive.

It was a back-and-forth, high-scoring affair in the first half with Ott scoring on a 73-yard run on the second play from scrimmage to set the tone.

The Wildcats scored on four of their first five drives of the game, getting two short TD runs by Jonah Coleman and Michael Wiley and a 24-yard TD pass from de Laura to Tetairoa McMillan.

Plummer threw a 16-yard TD pass to J. Michael Sturdivant in the second quarter and gave Cal the lead early in the third when he found Keleki Latu from 3 yards out on fourth-and-1.

Ott added his second TD midway through the third quarter. He ran into a group of defenders at the 13 yet managed to keep his feet and snuck out of the scrum to run it into the end zone to make it 35-24.

Ott added his second breakaway run late in the fourth quarter.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Jayden de Laura threw for 484 yards and tied a school record with six touchdowns, Jacob Cowing caught 12 passes for 180 yards and a touchdown and Arizona used that big night through the air to beat Colorado 43-20 on Saturday.

There were several offensive stars for Arizona, but it was a particularly good night for Dorian Singer, who made a pair of highlight-reel catches. The second - a fingertip catch in the back of the end zone for a 5-yard touchdown - gave the Wildcats a 19-7 lead.

Singer finished with nine catches for 163 yards.

Arizona (3-2, 1-1 Pac-12) is halfway to the six wins needed for bowl eligibility, one year after a dismal 1-11 campaign. The Wildcats rolled up 673 yards of total offense.

It was another lopsided loss for the Buffs (0-5, 0-2), who lost their first four games by at least 25 points and weren't much better against the Wildcats.

Colorado freshman Owen McCown completed 14 of 30 passes for 186 yards and a touchdown. He also ran for 43 yards and a touchdown.

The Wildcats took a 26-13 lead into halftime. The game could have been even more lopsided but Arizona couldn't convert on a few good opportunities. Among them: Singer's acrobatic one-handed grab for a 47-yard gain early in the second quarter put Arizona on Colorado's 3-yard line, but the Buffs stuffed the next four plays to keep the Wildcats out of the end zone.

Arizona took an early 7-0 lead with a 75-yard touchdown drive on the opening possession. De Laura hit Michael Wiley for an 8-yard touchdown on the 11th play. Wiley finished with two touchdown catches.

The Buffs came right back with McCown orchestrating a nine-play, 70-yard drive. Colorado got close to the end zone on a 36-yard screen pass that caught Arizona in an all-out blitz and then McCown ran for a 1-yard touchdown on the next play.

Arizona would score the next 19 points and slowly pulled away.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- With six touchdown passes in the victory over Colorado, Wildcat QB Jayden de Laura tied the Arizona school record, matching Tom Tunnicliffe's six touchdown throws against Pacific on Oct. 23, 1982.
- With three catches for 34 yards and a touchdown in the first quarter, Cowing eclipsed the 3,000-yard mark for his collegiate career while catching his seventh touchdown of the season.
- Arizona totaled 673 yards of total offense in its 43-20 win over Colorado, setting a school record for most yards of offense in conference play as a member of the Pac-10/12 Conference.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Bo Nix threw for 265 yards and ran for three touchdowns, Noah Whittington added an early 55-yard touchdown run and No. 12 Oregon rolled to a 49-22 victory over Arizona on Saturday night.

The Ducks (5-1, 3-0 Pac-12) scored touchdowns on seven consecutive drives starting midway through the first quarter, building a 49-13 lead by late in the third.

Oregon piled up 580 yards of total offense - including 306 yards on the ground - doing pretty much whatever it wanted against Arizona (3-3, 1-2).

Nix was a great on the ground for a second straight game, scoring on a pair of 2-yard runs before breaking free for a 25-yard touchdown in the third quarter. He ran for a career-high 141 yards and two touchdowns last week against Stanford.

The Ducks have won five straight since a season-opening loss to Georgia, scoring more than 40 points in every game. They built a 28-13 lead by halftime Saturday. Nix completed 13 of 14 passes for 187 yards as the offense racked up 346 total yards before the break.

Arizona managed to stay within striking distance thanks to a 52-yard touchdown run by DJ Williams and a pair of field goals from Tyler Loop, including a 36-yarder as time expired in the second quarter.

But the Ducks erased any doubt about the outcome in the third. Oregon opened the second half with an efficient eight-play, 75-yard drive, capped by Nix's second touchdown run for a 35-13 advantage. A few minutes later, Bucky Irving ran for a 22-yard touchdown and a 42-13 lead.

Arizona's Jayden de Laura completed 24 of 42 passes for 241 yards, one touchdown and an interception.

Oregon had to punt on its first offensive drive but quickly found its offensive rhythm.

Whittington gave the Ducks a 7-3 lead late in the first quarter on a superb 55-yard touchdown run. The 5-foot-8, 194-pounder made one quick cut, evading a tackle, and then sprinted straight forward before blowing past Arizona defenders on his way to the end zone.

The Ducks added to their momentum early in the second. Nix hit a diving Kris Hutson for a 42-yard gain that was just short of a touchdown. On the next play, Nix kept it himself for a 2-yard touchdown and 14-3 lead.

Arizona had a promising first drive snuffed out at the Oregon 11 when de Laura and Jacob Cowing botched a handoff. Oregon's DJ Johnson was there to fall on the fumble.

RECAP

SEATTLE (AP) — Michael Penix Jr. passed for a school-record 516 yards and four touchdowns and ran for another score and Washington beat Arizona 49-39 on Saturday.

Penix hit Rome Odunze on scoring passes of 45 and 48 yards in the decisive third quarter to help the Huskies snap a two-game losing streak. The junior transfer entered the game as the nation's second-leading passer and didn't disappoint in a game that featured the Pac-12 Conference's top two offenses and two of its star quarterbacks.

Penix led the Huskies to 608 total yards of offense and, along with breaking Cody Pickett's passing record of 455 yards, he set the school record for total yards with 529, breaking Marcus Tuiasosopo's record (509 yards).

Penix led the Huskies to a quick 7-0 lead on their first drive, hitting Jalen McMillan in the back of the end zone for a 23-yard touchdown. Jayden De Laura tied the game two drives later when he hit Tetairoa McMillan, who broke a tackle on his way to a 46-yard touchdown.

The Huskies' early lead might have been bigger, but the Wildcats defense came up with two fourth-and-short stops in the first half. Jalen Harris and Jacob Manu stuffed Taulapapa on fourth-and-2 in the first quarter and D.J. Warnell Jr. stopped Cameron Davis for no gain on fourth-and-1 at the 19 in the second quarter.

De Laura tied it 14-14 on a 39-yard pass to Dorian Singer, who came wide open down the right sideline when his defender, Jordan Perryman, came up lame and began to limp.

The Wildcats left 2:23 on the clock, however, and Penix picked apart the defense on a 12-play, 75-yard drive capped by a 4-yard scoring pass to Sam Adams II with 8 seconds left for a 21-14 halftime lead. Penix was 9 of 11 on the drive for 72 yards.

He kept it rolling, hitting Odunze for a 45-yard touchdown and a 28-14 lead just 46 seconds into the second half. And he added an 8-yard scoring run midway through the quarter to answer a Jonah Coleman 3-yard touchdown dive and keep the Huskies up 35-21.

Then Penix seemed to put the game out of reach with another deep shot to a wide open Odunze, who caught the 48-yard touchdown to make it 42-24 with 1:56 left in the third.

De Laura, last seen in Seattle leading an upset of the Huskies last season for Washington State, escaped the Washington rush again and again to keep Arizona in it. He hit Tetairoa McMillan again midway through the fourth, this time from 26 yards out, to cut the lead to 42-37. But Penix led another long drive capped by a 19-yard Davis scoring run with 5:25 left for the win.

RECAP

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Caleb Williams threw for 411 yards and five touchdowns, and No. 10 Southern California scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to outlast Arizona 45-37 on Saturday night.

The Trojans (7-1, 5-1 Pac-12) had an extra week to shake off their first loss of the season, an emotional 43-42 setback at No. 14 Utah.

USC fought off some early missed opportunities - one caused by the officials - against Arizona, racking up 621 total yards to match its best start since 2008. The Trojans have won 10 straight against Arizona.

The Wildcats (3-5, 1-4) nearly kept up with USC offensively, finishing with 543 total yards. Defensively, they struggled with missed tackles and allowed USC to convert 11 of 17 on third down.

Jayden de Laura threw for 380 yards and three touchdowns to Dorian Singer, the last a 5-yarder that cut USC's lead to 45-37 with 1:26 left. USC recovered the onside kick to seal the victory.

Arizona kept it close most of the night.

Singer had a spectacular 23-yard touchdown catch from de Laura, fending off a defender to snare it one-handed, and Tyler Loop kicked three field goals.

Williams had a pair of first-half touchdown passes, but the Trojans also missed on some good scoring opportunities.

USC settled for a field goal on its first drive and Denis Lynch missed badly on a 56-yard attempt after Williams' 30-yr TD pass to Terrell Bynum was called back by a holding penalty.

USC appeared to be in a good position for more points just before halftime when Williams hit Rice on a 33-yard pass to Arizona's 10. Instead, the officials started the clock before spotting the ball and Williams couldn't spike it before time ran out, leaving USC coach Lincoln Riley incensed.

Williams found Tahj Washington on a 3-yard touchdown to open the third quarter, then found him again on a 47-yard score as he was being hit to put USC up 31-16.

Arizona rallied, closing to 31-29 on de Laura's 19-yard TD pass and Michael Wiley's 10-yard TD run on an option.

USC finally stretched the lead after that. Williams hit Kyle Ford on a 5-yard touchdown to open the fourth quarter and Travis Dye leaped in for a 2-yard TD run to make it 45-29.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Arizona's 163 rushing yards and average of 6.3 yards per attempt were both season-high marks. Jayden de Laura (54), Michael Wiley (49), and DJ Williams (43) all rushed for 40-plus yards.
- With 380 yards passing, Arizona's Jayden de Laura eclipsed the 350-yard mark throwing the ball for the fourth time this season (eight games). Since 1996, the most 350-plus yard passing performances in a single season belongs to Nick Foles, who had nine in 2011.
- Saturday's 542-yard performance by the Wildcats offense was the fourth 500-yard game under head coach Jedd Fisch, all of which have come this year. It was their second-highest total offense output of the year, behind only a 673-yard performance against Colorado.

RECAP

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Ja'Quinden Jackson ran for a career-high 97 yards and a touchdown and No. 12 Utah had a season-high 306 yards rushing in a 45-20 win over Arizona on Saturday night.

Cam Rising threw for 151 yards and a touchdown in his return following a one-game absence. Utah (No. 14 CFP, 7-2, 5-1 Pac-12) forced seven fumbles and recovered four.

Jayden de Laura had 159 yards passing and ran for a touchdown to lead Arizona (3-6, 1-5). The Wildcats totaled 387 yards but gained only 138 yards after halftime.

Utah took control of the game in the second quarter behind an imposing running attack. The Utes racked up 153 yards and four touchdowns on the ground in the first half while averaging 7.0 yards per carry. Three of the scores came in the second quarter.

Arizona got its only touchdown before halftime when Michael Wiley gained 57 yards on a jet sweep to set up De Laura's 3-yard scoring run two plays later to tie the score 7-7.

Third string QB Nate Johnson scored touchdowns on his first two career carries to help Utah pull away before halftime. His first touchdown, an 8-yard run, put the Utes up 14-7. After Zemaiah Vaughn recovered a muffed punt return at the Arizona 9, Johnson punched it in on his second run one play later to extend the lead to 28-7.

The Utes drove deep into Arizona territory twice in the third quarter, but fumbles ended both drives. Utah finally scored its fifth touchdown early in the fourth on Rising's first touchdown pass. He connected with Thomas Yassmin on a 12-yard strike to extend the Utes' lead to 38-10.

THE TAKEAWAY

Arizona: The Wildcats came into the game with nation's third-ranked passing offense but struggled to generate much through the air against Utah. Arizona was held to 231 yards passing after averaging 340.1 yards through the air in its previous contests.

Utah: Taking a running back-by-committee approach worked well for the Utes. Nine different players carried the ball for Utah and five averaged at least seven yards per carry.

RECAP

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — University of Arizona quarterback Jayden de Laura accounted for three touchdowns and had his fifth 300-yard passing game of the season as Arizona upset ninth-ranked UCLA 34-28 Saturday night, snapping an eight-game road losing streak against ranked teams.

Michael Wiley ran for 97 yards and scored two touchdowns while Jacob Cowing caught nine passes for 118 yards.

Zach Charbonnet rushed for 181 yards and three touchdowns for the Bruins (8-2, 5-2 Pac-12), whose chances of making the Pac-12 title game took a big hit.

de Laura completed 22 of 28 for 315 yards and two TDs. He also ran in from 3-yards out during the second quarter to give the Wildcats (4-6, 2-5) a 21-14 halftime lead.

The sophomore is averaging 340.1 passing yards with 18 touchdowns and a 64.7% completion rate in his last seven games.

The Wildcats were in the lead most of the night but fell behind 28-24 with 10:22 remaining in the fourth quarter when Charbonnet had a 5-yard TD.

Arizona responded with an 8-play, 82-yard drive, capped by de Laura's 17-yard pass to Tetairoa McMillan on fourth-and-4.

After UCLA turned the ball over on downs, Tyler Loop extended the lead to six with a 23-yard field goal with 1:07 remaining.

The Bruins drove down to the Arizona 29, but Dorian Thompson-Robinson threw three straight incomplete passes to give the Wildcats their first road win over a Top 10 team since they defeated No. 2 Oregon in 2014.

Thompson-Robinson was 26 of 40 for 245 yards and a touchdown.

Arizona took a 14-0 lead with 3:50 remaining in the first quarter on a pair of Wiley touchdowns.

The junior running back had a 10-yard run up the middle to open the scoring and then caught a 22-yard pass from de Laura to extend the Wildcats' lead to two scores.

THE TAKEAWAY

It was a satisfying win for Head Coach Jedd Fisch, who was the Bruins' offensive coordinator in 2017 and interim coach for the final two games after Jim Mora Jr. was fired.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Nakia Watson scored two touchdowns and Washington State intercepted former quarterback Jayden de Laura four times in a 31-20 Pac-12 road victory over Arizona on Saturday.

Watson scored on a 4-yard pass from Cameron Ward in the first quarter and on a 2-yard run in the second, giving him six scores in the past three games. He finished with 86 all-purpose yards for the Cougars (7-4, 4-4 Pac-12).

De Laura, who transferred from WSU in January, was 28 of 46 for 357 yards with a rushing and passing TD. He was the 2021 Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year with the Cougars and threw four TD passes against Arizona (4-7, 2-6) last November.

Ward was 25 of 36 for 193 yards and a TD and ran for a season-high 59 yards including a 17-yard TD. He entered the game with eight rushing yards all season.

WSU led 21-6 at the half and extended that lead by picking off de Laura on three consecutive possessions. Sam Lockett III returned an interception to the Arizona 19, setting up Dean Janikowski's 23-yard field goal with 4:45 left in the third quarter, and Derrick Langford Jr. picked off de Laura and returned it 35 yards for the TD and a 31-6 lead 36 seconds later.

Lockett got his second pick with 1:13 left in the third, diving for an overthrow at the WSU 4.

The Cougars went up 7-0 less than four minutes into the game on Watson's TD catch, then made it 14-0 midway through the second quarter on a 17-yard Ward keeper. After Arizona cut the deficit to 18 on a 38-yard Tyler Loop field goal, WSU made it 21-3 on a 2-yard Watson TD run.

Arizona failed to score in the first quarter for the first time in 2022, going without a TD in the first half for the first time since last season's finale. Both its TDs came in the fourth quarter, including a 47-yard scoring catch by Dorian Singer, who had nine receptions for 176 yards.

THE TAKEAWAY

Washington State: Running backs coach Mark Atuaia wore Virginia gear on the sidelines to honor the victims of the tragic shooting involving that killed three Cavaliers players and injured another last Sunday. Atuaia, who coached at Virginia from 2016-21, was one of 10 coaches across college football on Saturday honoring their former team.

Arizona: The Wildcats failed to gain bowl eligibility for the fifth consecutive season, their longest stretch without a bowl appearance since missing nine years in a row from 1999-2007.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Sophomore wide out Dorian Singer had a career day versus Washington State, matching his career high in catches with nine and setting a career high in receiving yards with 176. It marked Singer's fourth game this season eclipsing the 100-yard mark.
- With 357 yards passing against the Cougars, quarterback Jayden de Laura has amassed 3,485 yards through the air and now ranks 5th in program history in passing yards in a season.
- Tetairoa McMillan's 75 yards against Washington State made him the third Arizona wideout to surpass the 700-yard mark this season. This marks the only time (1996-current) that Arizona has sported three 700-yard receivers in a season. The Wildcats are the first Pac-12 program to hit that mark since Washington State and USC did it in 2019.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Michael Wiley ran for 214 yards and three touchdowns, and Arizona beat Arizona State 38-35 on Friday to end a five-game losing streak in the Territorial Cup rivalry.

The Wildcats (5-7, 3-6 Pac-12) twice led by 10 points and let Arizona State back in it both times in a wild game that featured 1,018 combined yards.

Wiley was Arizona's workhorse, finishing with the second-most rushing yards in Territorial Cup history behind Trung Candidate's 288 for Arizona in 1998.

Trenton Bourguet threw for 376 yards and three touchdowns for Arizona State (3-9, 2-7) in Shaun Aguano's final game as interim coach. The Sun Devils got the ball back at their own 28-yard line with 1:33 after stopping Arizona on a fourth-and-1, but Bourguet threw his second interception after being hit.

The Sun Devils rallied from some early miscues to lead 14-10 at halftime.

Once the second half started, neither team could stop the other, combining for five touchdowns and 429 yards in the third quarter alone.

Giovanni Sanders caught a 9-yard touchdown pass from Bourguet to put Arizona State up 21-17. Wiley scored on runs of 12 and 72 yards to make it 31-21 Arizona.

Xazavian Halladay scored on a 1-yard run after Jalin Conyers caught a 27-yard pass between two defenders, then Conyers scored on a wide-open 4-yard pass to put Arizona State up 35-31.

DJ Williams answered with a 6-yard score to put Arizona back up and the Wildcats got the ball back on a strip sack of Bourguet with 3:17 left.

Arizona State had one last chance after stopping the Wildcats on fourth down, but Isaiah Taylor made a diving interception after Jacob Manu hit Bourguet's arm.

A melee between multiple players ensued, but the pick ended Arizona's five-year misery against its biggest rival.

THE TAKEAWAY

Arizona State racked up 537 total yards, but couldn't overcome five turnovers nor stop the Wildcats' offense to close out a roller coaster season.

Arizona ended its second season under coach Jedd Fisch by finally winning the game on the schedule that matters most in Tucson.

Scholar-Athlete Awards

2012 Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete - John Bonano

John Bonano earned NCAA and Pac-12 Postgraduate Scholarships, the Pac-12 Tom Hansen Medal. He was named a 2012 CoSIDA Second-Team Academic All-American, the 2012 Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year, was a three-time Pac-12 All-Academic honoree.

In 2012, Bonano ranked fifth in the Pac-12 in scoring and No. 1 among kickers with 7.8 points per game. In his final campaign, he was 58-of-59 in PATs and 14-of-20 in field goals. He also ran in for a two-point conversion against ASU. Bonano's PAT with 0:19 to play in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl gave the Wildcats the go-ahead score to win the game, 49-48. He owns the school record for consecutive PAT kicks made with 73.

Additionally, Bonano earned a 2013 Pillar of Excellence Award, given out by Arizona's Honors College to distinguished graduating seniors. On March 3, Bonano was honored by the Southern Arizona Chapter of the National Football Foundation as a 2013 Scholar-Athlete. He earned his degree in physiology in December 2012.

2007 ToyoTires Pac-10 Scholar-Athlete - Spencer Larsen

A two-time first-team Academic All-Pac-10 selection, Arizona linebacker Spencer Larsen became the first league football player named in the initial group of student-athletes to receive the conference's new Scholar-Athlete Award. Larsen's 3.70 grade point average in regional development, his first-team All-Pac-10 playing honor and his exemplary citizenship and scholastic standing helped him earn the award. He led the Pac-10 with 131 tackles his senior year, led Arizona with 15.5 tackles for loss, was in on seven fumble plays (4 FR and 3 FF) and knocked down five passes. He finished his career with a total of 312 tackles. He was a 2007 finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy awarded annually to a top citizen-athlete among national collegiate football players, and an All-America selection by rivals.com (2nd team) and cfm.com (3rd).

2003 Woody Hayes Scholar-Athlete - Jason Johnson

University of Arizona senior quarterback Jason Johnson won the 2003 Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award in January 2003, honoring an exemplary year as the outstanding man in Division I athletics.

Johnson, who made outstanding appearances in both the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl, earned Academic All-Pac-10 first-team quarterback honors for the second consecutive year, was a Verizon District VIII first-team Academic pick, won a berth on the American Football Coaches "Good Works Team" and completed his final year at Arizona with more than a dozen single-season, career or UA top-10 marks in passing and total offense. He was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player for 2002 and elected a co-captain by his teammates. He was a Canadian Football League quarterback and Grey Cup Champion for Edmonton after his graduation.

Johnson completed his undergraduate studies in 2001 with a 3.79 grade point average in business management, then was a honors graduate student in religious studies his final two semesters. Among his community activities were the Fellowship for Christian Athletes, Drug Free School Program, youth basketball coaching, Adopt a Family, Race for a Cure Cancer Walk and numerous youth-oriented speaking engagements.

1996 Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete - Wayne Wyatt

A two-year starting center on the Wildcat football teams of 1995-96 and eventually one of three team captains, Wayne Wyatt earned respectable numbers on the field. But his numbers off the field captured national attention — namely his 3.941 grade point average. He was selected as one of the 16 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athletes in 1996, with an $18,000 scholarship for post-graduate studies, which he used for dental school. Wyatt was named to the 1996 GTE Academic All-America football first team by the College Sports Information Directors of America, Arizona's fifth player to earn first-team scholastic honors.

Wyatt earned Pacific-10 All-Academic and GTE All-District 8 honors. He was honored as one of the UA's distinguished scholar-athletes, named every semester to the Dean's List and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors as well. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy in August 1995 and a master's degree in business administration in May 1997.

National Player of the Year Awards

1990 Jim Thorpe Award - Darryll Lewis

Arizona defensive back Darryll Lewis won the 1990 Jim Thorpe Award as the country's top defensive back. Lewis, who was inducted into Arizona's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, finished his career with 14 interceptions, played in the Hula Bowl, was a third-round NFL pick and is a regular NFL starter. He was the 1990 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year.

Lewis was a game-turning defensive back; such as the time his interception return of 70 yards for a score helped UA beat UCLA. Or his goal-line stop of scrambling Oregon quarterback Bill Musgrave at the goal line to preserve another victory. Those were huge plays by a big-time player, but a few of many he provided as a four-year letterman from 1987-1990.

1993 Outland Trophy - Rob Waldrop

Wildcat defensive tackle Rob Waldrop capped a tremendous career as the winner of the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman in 1993.

Opponents double- and triple-teamed him at times in an effort to contain his pass rush and run-stopping techniques. Among his 53 tackles that year were 14 for losses, including eight sacks — a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. In his final two seasons, he had 18 sacks and spearheaded the play, which spawned the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname. He also won the Football Writer's inaugural Defensive Player of the Year Award, now called the Bronko Nagurski Award. He was named UPI Lineman of the Year as well.

In a superior effort at the 1994 Fiesta Bowl, Waldrop helped pin Miami with its back to the goal and came up with another sack, helping Arizona beat Miami, 29-0.

1994 Lou Groza Award - Steve McLaughlin

Arizona's Steve McLaughlin topped a remarkable four-year career in 1994 by winning the Lou Groza Collegiate Place Kicker Award as the nation's best — the player you want to kick one in the clutch. He certainly did in 1994, earning consensus first-team All-America honors.

He made 80 percent of his kicks during the season, including an amazing 12-of-16 from beyond 40 yards and 3-of-5 from beyond 50 yards. Subtracting a couple of monster tries at the end of periods, he was 23-of-27 from 57 yards and in. He led the Pac-10 in scoring with 95 points in 1994 and was first in the league and second nationally with 2.1 field goals per game. He kicked a career-best 54-yard field goal against California to earn an AT&T Long Distance Award for the longest kick of the week. He made all 26 of his point-after kicks. He was an accomplished pooch punter from field goal formation and kicked off his final two years as well.

He finished his career with 57 field goals in 81 tries and made 112-of-119 PATs for 283 points, third on the UA's all-time scoring list.

McLaughlin acquired the 'let-me-kick-it' attitude that is so critical to the trade. He had some misses that might have turned games but kept his confidence growing. One big day for McLaughlin came when his three field goals helped beat No. 1 Washington in 1992.

1998 Mosi Tatupu Award - Chris McAlister

Arizona cornerback Chris McAlister capped an outstanding three-year Wildcat career by winning the 1998 Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award as the nation's top player in the kicking game.

McAlister, a unanimous All-America pick and finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award honoring the best collegiate defensive back that year as well, was involved in Arizona's special teams from both sides of the kick.

In 1998, he set the tone for the Cats' big-play 12-1 season by returning the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown at Hawai'i on the first play of the year, tying his own school record set in 1996 against UCLA. He blocked punts in each of the final two regular-season games of the year and had a third deflected punt. He returned a punt 69 yards for a score against Northeast Louisiana and returned an interception 60 yards for a score against Washington State to become only the seventh player in NCAA history to have scored on kickoff, punt and interception returns in a single season.

He was a defensive player who averaged 38 yards per game in all-purpose yardage: eight kickoff returns for a 29.5 mark, five punt returns for a 20.8 mark and five interception returns for a 12.8 figure. What it meant to the Cats for three years was like having a 12th player on the field each time McAlister took his place somewhere among the action. His 18 career interceptions placed him No. 3 on UA's all-time chart, but his special teams' play was unmatched.

2007 Jim Thorpe Award - Antoine Cason

Arizona cornerback Antoine Cason became UA's second Jim Thorpe Award winner and the latest Wildcat consensus All-American since 1999 with his superlative senior season in 2007. Among his highlight-reel plays in 2007 were interception returns of 42 yards for a score against Oregon, a 56-yard punt return for a score against the Ducks and a 60-yard interception return for a score against Oregon State. He had three other interceptions on the year to give him a career total of 15, fourth best in school history. His 165 yard on INT returns was just shy of the school record 191 yards set by Thorpe Award winner Darryll Lewis in 1990.

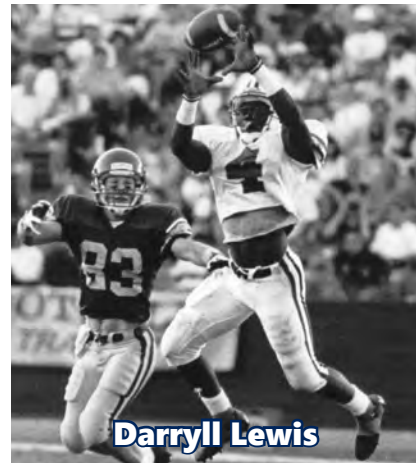

Cason was a two-time first-team All-Pac-10 selection. In 2007 he was named first-team All-America by Walter Camp, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, CBS Sports, ESPN.com, SI.com, Rivals.com and cfn.com. His electrifying play was no more special than his off-the-field comportment as a UA team spokesman and leader throughout his career. His 'Cason Cares' charity drive for cancer research in 2007 typified his renaissance leadership. He was Arizona's Ruby Award winner as the top male student-athlete for the 2007-08 school year. But his senior year's action on the field was special. He finished with 71 tackles, five interception, 14 passes defended, two forced fumbles, a sack and four tackles for loss. His four returns for scores (2 INT, 2 PR) set a UA standard.

2014 Chuck Bednarik Award, Rotatary Lombardi Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy - Scooby Wright III

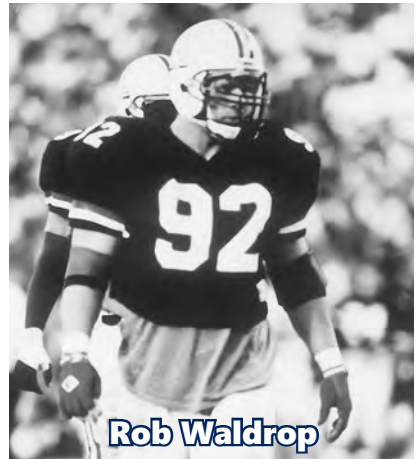

Sophomore linebacker Scooby Wright III swept the national defensive player of the year awards in 2014. Also Arizona's sixth unanimous All-American, he was named the Pac-12 Pat Tillman Defensive Player of the Year and the CBS Sports.com, Scout.com and SB National National Defensive Player of the Year. A three-time Pac-12 Player of the Week, Wright was also the lone defensive player named Walter Camp Player of the Year Finalist.

He turned in one of the most prolific defensive seasons in NCAA history. He ranked in the top five among FBS players for total tackles (163), tackles for loss (29.0), sacks (14.0) and forced fumbles (6). He set career game-high 19 tackles at UCLA, 5.0 TFL vs. ASU and three forced fumbles at Washington State.

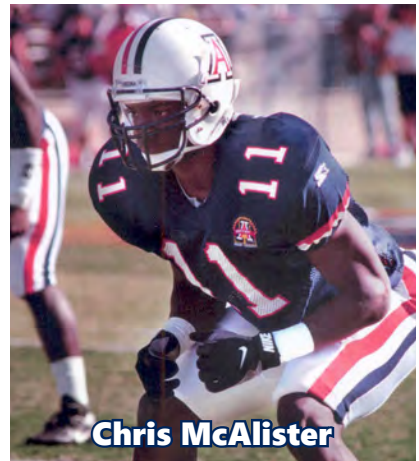

Wright was instrumental in Arizona's 10-win season and bids to the Pac-12 Championship and VIZIO Fiesta Bowl Games.

Warren Woodson

Wildcats in the NFF College Hall of Fame

Coach Warren Woodson - 1989 Inductee

Arizona's head coach from 1952-56, Warren Woodson was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989. He served as Art Luppino's head coach during his NCAA-leading rushing seasons in 1954 and 1955. During his career, he coached six NCAA rushing leaders. He led the Wildcats to a 26-22-3 record during his four seasons in Tucson.

Linebacker Ricky Hunley - 1998 Inductee

One of many defensive stars at Arizona over the years, All-America linebacker Ricky Hunley was a hugely physical presence in the early 1980s and became the first Wildcat elected to the College Football Hall of Fame, with induction in 1998. He turned down a Pittsburgh Pirates baseball offer to play football at Arizona. From 1980 to 1983, Hunley was in on an amazing 566 tackles and was a consensus first-team All-American in both 1982 and 1983. He was a three-time All-Pacific-10 Conference selection and was the 1983 Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year. A team captain in 1983, he also earned Arizona's Most Valuable Player honor in helping lead the Wildcats to a 7-3-1 record. For several seasons, he played alongside his younger brother, LaMonte, also a Wildcat linebacker. Hunley led the Wildcats in unassisted tackles every year from 1981-83 with totals of 74, 100 and 99, respectively. He also set a school record recovering five fumbles in 1983. Now a professional coach, Hunley played in the NFL for seven years and participated in Super Bowls XXI and XXII as a Denver Bronco. He has coached at Southern California and Missouri and served on the Board of Directors for the Black Coaches Association and the Minority Issues Committee of the AFCA.

Coach Jim Young - 1999 Inductee

Former University of Arizona coach Jim Young joined several other coaches — Don Coryell and Jerry Claiborne — and the likes of Herschel Walker, Billy Kilmer, John Hannah, Ross Browner and several other storied players in the 1999 class of inductees into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame. Young, retired in Tucson, had three successful head coaching stints, including his first at Arizona from 1973 to 1976, at Purdue from 1977 to 1981 and a tour of duty at Army from 1983 to 1990. Overall, he won more than 60 percent of his games, at 120-71-2, turning around programs at each stop. At UA, he was 31-13 and posted two 9-2 seasons in 1974 and 1975, among UA's best ever. His 1973 Arizona club finished 8-3 and tied for UA's first conference title in 40 years. At Purdue, he was 38-19-1 with three bowl victories. Coaching the Cadets, he was 51-39-1 with a 2-1 bowl record. Young, who holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Bowling Green, employed passing attacks at Arizona and Purdue and installed the wish-bone at Army to reach national rushing prominence. Young completed his football career as an offensive assistant on Dick Tomey's 1992-94 Arizona staffs after Tomey talked him into delaying his retirement.

Jim Young

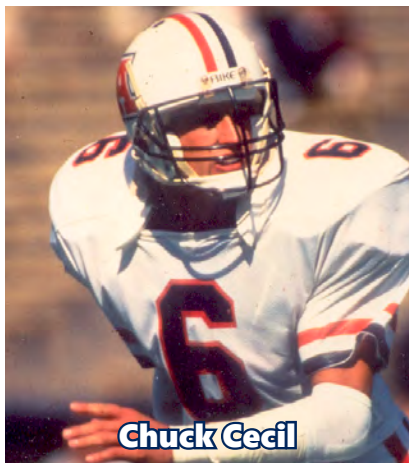

Coach Darrell Mudra - 2000 Inductee

Darrell Mudra retired from collegiate football in 1988 bringing an end to a Hall of Fame career, which boasts a 200-81-4 record and two national championships. He started his collegiate head-coaching career at Adams State in 1959 and led the team to the 1962 Mineral Bowl, where they defeated Northern Illinois 23-20. In 1963 he became the head coach at North Dakota State where he successfully turned the program around from a 0-10 record the year before, to a 1964 Mineral Bowl victory. In 1965 he won his first national championship defeating Grambling 20-7 in the Pecan Bowl. He then coached the University of Arizona for two seasons and led them to the 1968 Sun Bowl. After a successful stint at Western Illinois, Mudra coached Florida State for two years before going to Eastern Illinois where he won the Division II National Championship. During Coach Mudra's tenure at Northern Iowa, he led the team to the I-AA semifinals in 1985 and 1987. The Panthers were ranked fourth nationally at the end of the 1987 season and lost to the eventual national champion Northeast Louisiana 44-41 in overtime. He was named Kodak Region 4 Coach of the Year in 1985 while at UNI. Mudra was nicknamed "Dr. Victory" because of his success at each level, but always shied away from all of the accolades, preferring to let his assistants and players take the credit.

Safety Chuck Cecil - 2009 Inductee

A three-time First Team Academic All-America selection (1986-87), Cecil starred for Arizona from 1984 to 1987, first under the late Larry Smith and then under former head coach Dick Tomey for his final year. He began as a recruited walk-on and finished his UA career as one of the Pac-10's noted and fearless safeties. A consensus All-American in 1987, Cecil was the Aloha Bowl MVP and a two-time first-team all-conference selection, plus earned second-team honors as a sophomore. He was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 and Pac-10 Player of the Week on three occasions. A three-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection, he culminated his education as a recipient of the NCAA Top VI Award, one of the nation's top scholar-athlete citations. He was named Arizona's male winner of the the Pac-10 Conference Medal.

He holds the Arizona career record with 21 interceptions and among those returned one 100 yards for a touchdown against Arizona State in 1986, one of the most electrifying moment in UA football history. Drafted in the fourth round of the 1988 draft by the Green Bay Packers, Cecil spent seven seasons in the NFL and is currently defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans. Cecil has served as co-chair of the University of Arizona Medical Center Foundation campaign for UMC Trauma Center.

Chuck Cecil

Defensive Tackle Rob Waldrop - 2011 Inductee

A two-time consensus All-American during his junior and senior seasons, Waldrop was the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1993, received the Outland Trophy honoring the country's top interior lineman, was voted the Top Defensive Player of the Year by the Football Writers of America (now called the Bronko Nagurski award), and was one of four finalists for the Lombardi Trophy honoring the outstanding lineman of the year.

In 1992 he was voted by opposing linemen as the Pac-10's defensive winner of the Morris Award. He earned first-team All-Pacific-10 Conference honors in 1992 and 1993 and was Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week against Miami in 1992 and versus USC in 1993. He was named defensive MVP of the 1992 Sun Bowl. He earned Playboy Pigskin Preview All-America honors in 1993. During his senior season, Waldrop recorded 53 total tackles, 14 for losses, including eight sacks -- a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. His play, which helped spawn the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname, was evident in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl when he helped guide Arizona to a shutout, 29-0 victory. He spear-headed an effort which helped the Wildcats lead the nation and set a Pac-10 record with 33 rushing yards allowed per game in 1993, when Arizona led the nation in total defense. He finished his Arizona career with an amazing 164 tackles for an interior lineman, with 44 tackles for loss and 22.5 sacks, which rate fifth in UA's history. Waldrop was drafted in '94 by the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs, played two seasons and later went on to a 1996 stint with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL.

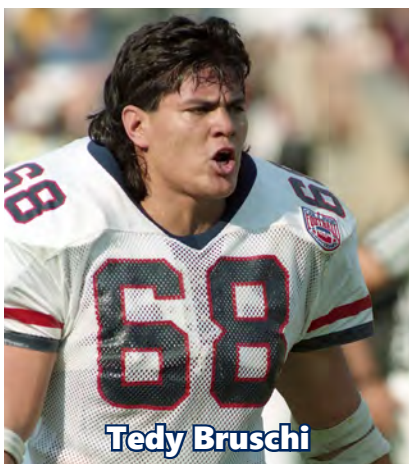

Defensive Tackle Tedy Bruschi - 2013 Inductee

With Bruschi as a key component, Arizona's Desert Swarm defense led the nation in scoring defense in 1992. In 1993, Desert Swarm led the nation in rushing defense and defined a squad that achieved UA's first 10-victory season, defeating Miami, 29-0, in the Fiesta Bowl. Bruschi was named Fiesta Bowl MVP.

Bruschi (1991-95) ended his career with 52 sacks, tied for the most in NCAA history. He was a consensus All-American in 1994 and a unanimous All-American in 1995.

Bruschi's celebrated senior season included the 1995 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year honors and winning the Morris Trophy as the league's best defensive lineman. He was a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award and graduated with 74 tackles for loss, which ranked sixth in FBS history. Bruschi was named all-conference three times and he led the Wildcats to three bowl berths under head coach Dick Tomey.

The San Francisco native was a third-round selection by the New England Patriots in the 1996 NFL Draft. Bruschi enjoyed a 13-year career, winning three Super Bowls with the franchise. The Pro Bowler was named the Associated Press' Comeback Player of the Year in 2005 following a stroke.

Super Bowl Wildcats

Former UA players have 49 overall player appearances in the NFL Championship tilt. Three former Wildcats played in Super Bowl LII at Minneapolis, Minn., where quarterback Nick Foles earned MVP honors in leading Philadelphia to the championship. The trio of Super Bowl Cats in 2018 matched the UA's high for a single Super Bowl, first set at Super Bowl XLII in 2008 in Glendale, Ariz. Retired linebacker Tedy Bruschi and offensive lineman Glenn Parker lead all UA players with five Super Bowls – all of Bruschi's with the New England Patriots and Parker in four with the Buffalo Bills and one with the New York Giants. Bruschi, the NCAA career sack leader when he left college, has the best Super Bowl jewelry collection with three Championship rings as the starting middle linebacker for the Patriots in the 2000s. In 2008, starting linebacker Antonio Pierce and backup DB Michael Johnson took home championship rings for the New York Giants over Bruschi's Pats. Current Patriots tight end Rob Gronkowski has appeared in four super bowls in the last six seasons.

Arizona Stadium is one of the finest playing facilities in the country and was recently upgraded through one of the most significant improvements in its history. The home of the Wildcats, Arizona Stadium reflects the history and tradition of Arizona football and the overall growth of the University of Arizona campus.

The Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, which opened to the public in August 2013, is a reflection of that growth and completed a dynamic shift in the Arizona football culture as it becomes the centerpiece of the program on the north end of Arizona Stadium. Supported by private funds including significant leadership gifts from David and Edith Lowell and from Jeff and Sharon Stevens, the $72.3 million project provides the Wildcats with one of the premier football facilities in the nation.

The facility is a four-floor operations center with strength and conditioning, sports medicine, coaches' offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, equipment and facility service areas. The structure encloses the north end of the stadium and creates a full bowl with nearly 4,000 premium spectator seats, including a donor lounge with outdoor seating. Additionally, stairways and elevator towers for the concourse connect the structure to the existing east and west stadium sections. Restrooms, amenity areas and a cafeteria also serve fans, campus and the community.

Spectators in the revamped north end of the stadium have a front and center view of the state-of-the-art video board beyond the opposite end zone. In August 2011, Arizona completed work on the video board for the south end zone. The new video board measures 113' wide by 47' high - 6.5 times larger than the previous board - and is one of the largest in all of college sports.

Indeed, the recent upgrades are the latest in the evolution of Arizona Stadium over the years. Built in 1928 with 7,000 seats located on the west side between the end zones, the stadium has grown into a 57,000-seat facility that combines tradition with modern conveniences, remaining one of the top venues for its spectators. Every seat features an uncluttered view of the playing surface, and more than half of the seats provide sweeping vistas of the campus and nearby city skyline, as well as the Santa Catalina Mountains.

Since playing and winning their first game on Oct. 12, 1929 (35-0 vs. California Tech), Arizona football teams have played 481 games in the stadium, 381 of them at twilight or night, winning 275, losing 174 and tying 12. The team has never failed to win at least one home game in a season and has gone undefeated nine times, the last time coming with a 6-0 record in 1993.

As Arizona football grew, so did the facilities surrounding it. In 1989, a $6.3 million structure housing the media, skyboxes and loge seating was added to accommodate increased interest in the football program. Two other non-football features of the stadium are notable - UA's renowned Tree Ring Research Lab on the west side, and the Steward Telescope Laboratory on the east side - two of the nation's most venerated research facilities.

In 1938, seating was added between the 25-yard lines on the east side to boost capacity to 10,000. Nine years later, the end zones were filled, and in 1950, the horseshoe at the south end was completed, giving the facility a capacity of 22,671 seats.

Expansion on the west side in 1965 provided 10,000 new seats, along with an 80-foot, multilevel press box. The two-tier addition to the east stands, adding 17,000 seats in 1976, was selected as one of six outstanding architectural projects in the Rocky Mountain States for 1977 by the AIA.

Permanent north-end bleacher seating for 4,500 was added in 1988, however, it would be removed for the new north-end project. The completion of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility gives Arizona Stadium a lower bowl configuration for the first time, a 360-degree experience for Wildcat fans.

1921 East-West Christmas Classic

Centre (Ky.) 38, Arizona 0
Dec. 26, 1921 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - A dominating squad from Centre (Ky.) College splashed to a 38-0 victory over Arizona in front of several thousand rain-soaked fans, spoiling Arizona's first-ever bowl game appearance.

The Praying Colonels held the Cats to zero first downs in the first half, and Arizona was unable to maintain a good drive throughout the game.

Centre's Red Roberts, one of Walter Camp's first All-America ends, scored the first touchdown five minutes into the match. Later, All-American Alvin (Bo) McMillin went over the right tackle for another score. Centre led 18-0 at the half.

The second half was much the same, as Centre dominated every phase. Just as Arizona was mounting a drive late in the third stanza, an interception ended Western hopes, and the Wildcat defense was unable to halt the potent Eastern attack. Centre's Herb Covington scored on a punt return and a sweep to seal the victory.

1949 Salad Bowl

Drake 14, Arizona 13
Jan. 1, 1949 // Phoenix, Ariz.

PHOENIX, Ariz. - Arizona couldn't overcome crucial mistakes, and the Drake Bulldogs triumphed, 14-13, before a crowd of 14,000 in nostalgia-filled Montgomery Stadium.

The fiery Midwesterners were outgained by coach Miles Casteel's troops, 355 yards to 206, but the Cats had two fumbles and an interception that ended any hope for a victory. Drake built a 14-7 halftime lead on the strength of Frank Metzger's 1-yard run and Floyd Miller's interception of Ed Wolgast for a 20-yard score. The Cats got on the board with a 15-yard Wolgast rollout.

Arizona roared back in the second half, as running back Charlie Hall romped 79 yards with the third quarter kickoff. The Cats failed to score on their first thrust after the thrilling return, but after an exchange of punts, the durable Wolgast tallied his second touchdown.

Drake carried the luck on this afternoon. Arizona's Wrinfred Tackett, one of the Border-Conference's top extra-point kickers, booted the pigskin against the left upright, the ball bounced away from the goal posts, and Drake escaped with a one-point margin.

Wolgast finished the day with 133 yards rushing, eight yards more than Drake's team total.

1968 Sun Bowl

Auburn 34, Arizona 10
Dec. 28, 1968 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona battled Auburn on even terms for one half, but within a period of seven minutes in the second half, the Tigers scored 24 points to crush the Wildcats, 34-10, before 32,302 weather-beaten fans and a national television audience in the 34th annual Sun Bowl.

Auburn had taken the lead, 10-0, on a John Riley 52-yard field goal, tying a Sun Bowl record, and a 65-yard touchdown pass from All-SEC quarterback Loran Carter to Mickey Zofko. But the Cats were fit to be tied as Steve Hurley booted a 37-yarder after both teams exchanged turnovers. Arizona held Auburn on fourth down with under two minutes left in the half, and Arizona's Bruce Lee went to work. Two first-down pass completions set up a 12-yard toss to Hal Arnason in the end zone, tying the score 10-10 at the half.

In the third quarter, Auburn took the lead and didn't look back as Tommy Taylor scampered nine yards to put the Tigers up 17-10. Then Buddy McClinton intercepted Lee for the third time in the game and raced 32 yards to score. Auburn's next possession produced a dazzling Carter to Tim Christian 42-yard touchdown pass. Riley then kicked a 41-yard field goal to secure the victory with 11:14 left.

Auburn's Buddy McClinton was voted MVP of the game, and All-America tackle Dave Campbell was honored as the outstanding lineman.

1979 Fiesta Bowl

Pittsburgh 16, Arizona 10
Dec. 25, 1979 // Tempe, Ariz.

TEMPE, Ariz. - The 10th-ranked Pittsburgh Panthers survived a late rally and hung on to defeat Arizona, 16-10, in the 1979 Fiesta Bowl. A national television audience was able to watch superb defensive play on both sides. Arizona's defense held Pitt to 299 yards, while the offense dented the Panther's nationally-ranked defense for 317 yards.

Pitt led 6-0 at halftime on the strength of 46- and 36-yard field goals by the game's most valuable offensive player, Mark Schubert. Arizona moved the ball well, but couldn't get the one big play it needed. The Cats drove to Pitt's 37, 26 and 22, but came up empty each time.

The Cats' trouble came on key plays. Midway through the first period, they were stopped on fourth-and-two at the Pitt 21. Arizona managed to get on the board late in the third period on a 38-yard field goal by Brett Weber, but Pitt answered with a touchdown to expand its lead to 13-3.

The Panthers appeared to have wrapped up the game when Schubert kicked his third field goal of the day with 8:02 left. But the Cats reached into their bag of tricks to get back in the game. From the Pitt 47, fullback Hubie Oliver took a pitch and launched a pass down field to Greg Jackson who caught it at the Panther one. Oliver scored on the next play.

The outcome was in doubt until Terry White picked off a Jim Krohn pass with :58 remaining. Arizona's David Liggins was voted the game's most valuable defensive player on the strength of two key interceptions of Dan Marino passes to thwart Panther drives.

1985 Sun Bowl

Arizona 13, Georgia 13
Dec. 25, 1985 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona and Georgia each failed on late field goal attempts leaving the teams tied, 13-13, and the record Sun Bowl crowd of 52,203 going home with an empty feeling.

The teams battled on even terms for a half with Georgia's Steve Crumley booting a 37-yard field goal and Arizona's Max Zendejas adding a 22-yarder after an apparent Arizona touchdown was nullified by penalty.

The third quarter belonged to coach Larry Smith's troops, who drove 34 yards with the second-half kickoff before Zendejas nailed a 52-yard field goal. The Wildcats expanded the margin to 13-3 with 3:30 left to play in the stanza, as Martin Rudolph picked off a James Jackson pass and bolted 35 yards for a touchdown.

Georgia took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona 28, where Davis Jacobs kicked a 45-yarder to begin the Bulldog rally. Two plays later, James DeBow fumbled, and Georgia's Tony Flack recovered to set up Lars Tate's game-tying 2-yard run. Jacobs missed a 44-yarder with 1:14 to play. The Cats then used a 25-yard David Adams run to give Zendejas a 39-yard try with :10 remaining. However, his attempt was wide-right and short.

Zendejas and Georgia center Peter Anderson won outstanding player honors. Arizona finished the season at 8-3-1, while Georgia wound up 7-3-2.

1986 Aloha Bowl

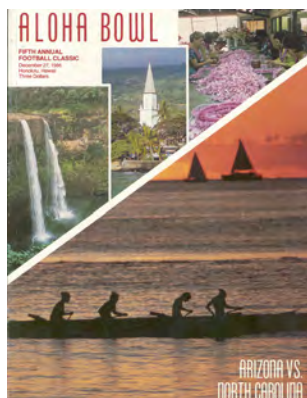

Arizona 30, North Carolina 21
Dec. 27, 1986 // Honolulu, Hawai'i

HONOLULU, Hawaii - Arizona capitalized on big defensive plays to coast to its first-ever post-season victory, 30-21, over North Carolina. All-America free safety Chuck Cecil was the ring-leader of the Cat defense that forced five fumbles with bone-jarring hits.

The Arizona offense showed spark as well. David Adams closed his sterling career with 81 yards rushing and a touchdown and three catches for 77 yards. Offensive MVP Alfred Jenkins finished 12-of-28 passing for 187 yards and a score.

But it was coach Larry Smith's defense which made the big plays to set up points. A Jim Birmingham fumble recovery led to a 31-yard Gary Coston field goal to begin the attack. Later, Boomer Gibson partially blocked a punt, and the Cats put seven more on the board with an Adams one-yard scamper. Danny Lockett's sack of Mark Maye caused a fumble, and the Cats cashed in with another Coston three-pointer for a 13-0 halftime lead.

It was more of the same in the third quarter. Arizona's Jeff Valder booted a 52-yard field goal to set an Aloha Bowl record. Then Cecil clobbered Jonathan Hall, and Jerry Beasley recovered the subsequent fumble at the Tar Heel 30. Jenkins found Jon Horton from 13 yards out for the quick score. Another Tar Heel fumble led to Greathouse's five-yard scoring run, and the Cats were in control.

1989 Copper Bowl

Arizona 17, North Carolina State 10
Dec. 31, 1989 // Tucson, Ariz.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Arizona cashed in on big plays to defeat North Carolina State, 17-10, before an Arizona Stadium crowd of 37,237 in the inaugural Copper Bowl. The Wildcats were dominated statistically, 310 yards to 130 yards including a season-low 50 yards on the turf. However, two unlikely heroes, Olatide Ogunfiditimi and Scott Geyer, made the big plays to pull out the victory.

In the first stanza, neither team could sustain drives, but the Cats got on the board first as Ronald Veal found a double-covered Ogunfiditimi 37 yards down field for a 7-0 advantage. The second quarter proved more magical as Geyer, the Defensive MVP, intercepted Shane Montgomery and raced 85 yards for a score.

But the Wolfpack had a magic wand of their own as Montgomery, the Offensive MVP, capped a 56-yard, nine-play drive with a four-yard touchdown toss to fullback Todd Varn to cut the lead, 14-7. The half ended with a Gary Coston 34-yard field goal. Score: 17-7.

The second half included a Damon Hartman 43-yarder to inch the Pack closer, 17-10. However the New Year brought a little luck to the Cats, as Montgomery just missed a diving Chris Williams over the middle for the possible tying touchdown with 1:02 left.

Arizona Dick Tomey notched a victory in his first-ever bowl game in 13 years as a head coach. The Wildcats finished 8-4 on the season, and the Wolfpack closed at 7-5.

1990 Eagle Aloha Bowl

Syracuse 28, Arizona 0
Dec. 25, 1990 // Honolulu, Hawai'i

HONOLULU, Hawaii - Marvin Graves ran for two touchdowns and passed for another score as Syracuse embarrassed Arizona, 28-0, in the ninth Eagle Aloha Bowl game in rain-drenched Aloha Stadium.

Graves scored on a pair of 5-yard runs and threw 47 yards to Terry Richardson and 6 yards to Chris Gedney as the Orangemen ran their record to 7-4-2. Arizona fell to 7-5. The shutout snapped Arizona's 214-game scoring streak, the second longest scoring streak in NCAA history. The last time the Cats were shut out was a 31-0 defeat by Arizona State in 1971.

The Orangemen drove 65 yards in 13 plays following the opening kickoff with Graves scoring on a quarterback draw from the five with 8:35 left in the first quarter.

Syracuse made it 14-0 with 2:22 remaining in the half as Richardson slipped behind the Cat pass defense for an easy 47-yard reception. Arizona tried to get back into the game in the third quarter, twice reaching the Orangemen 35-yard line. But both drives died, and Syracuse put the game away in the fourth quarter with two long marches.

Graves was selected as Syracuse's most valuable player, and cornerback Todd Burden, who had two interceptions and caused a fumble, was selected as Arizona's most valuable player. The week-long inclement weather put a damper on many activities and caused many ticket purchasers to stay at home. There were 32,217 tickets sold but only 14,185 attended the game.

1992 Hancock Bowl

Baylor 20, Arizona 15
Dec. 31, 1992 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona's defense lived up to its billing on all but two plays; those spelled doom as Baylor's big scoring passes helped beat the Cats, 20-15, in the John Hancock Bowl.

UA, which unleashed a no-huddle, wide-open passing attack, opened scoring with a Steve McLaughlin first-quarter field goal and increased the lead to 10-0 with a 65-yard scoring drive capped by a George Malauulu quarterback draw for seven yards mid-way through the second quarter.

BU halfback Brandell Jackson hit Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard strike three minutes later, but Arizona answered with a 14-play drive to set up another McLaughlin field goal and take a 13-7 halftime lead.

The Bears, held to 47 yards rushing, went to the air and struck again with another Bonner TD catch for 69 yards from QB J.J. Joe. Shortly into the fourth period, the Bears capitalized on two Arizona fumbles in UA territory and cashed them in for two Terry Weir field goals and a 20-13 lead.

With time running out, Arizona held BU deep on fourth-and-eight, and punter Rhett Delaney took an intentional safety at 0:31. A Chuck Levy 27-yard kickoff return put the Cats in decent shape, and UA drove to the Baylor 28. Two passes from Malauulu into the end zone were incomplete although Heath Bray nearly snagged the game winner on the first try.

1994 IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl

Arizona 29, Miami 0
Jan. 1, 1994 // Tempe, Ariz.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Arizona's heralded "Desert Swarm" defense lived up to its name, and the Cats' offensive attack nearly named its own price as UA thumped No. 10 Miami, 29-0, in IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl XXIII. The convincing victory was the bowl's only shutout in its 23-game history.

UA ran for 257 yards and one touchdown, passed for 152 yards and two touchdowns, had three Steve McLaughlin field goals and held Miami to 182 yards in total offense. The Wildcats' swarming defense limited the Canes to Fiesta Bowl record-lows of 22 rushes and 35 yards, plus picked off three Miami passes and sacked the quarterback four times.

Tailback Chuck Levy ran for 142 yards including a 68-yard scoring dash and earned Fiesta Bowl offensive MVP honors, while defensive end Tedy Bruschi recorded a sack and earned defensive MVP honors for UA.

UA jumped to a quick lead on its first possession, driving 75 yards with Dan White throwing a 13-yard TD pass to Troy Dickey. Arizona never looked back.

The Canes' total offense was the second-lowest in Fiesta Bowl history, and the Arizona margin of victory was the second-largest in bowl history. Arizona enjoyed a time of possession advantage of 37:20 to 22:40 for Miami, another bowl record. Miami's frustration was typified by its first possession, starting at its own 37-yard line. Three plays later the Canes punted on fourth-and-41 from their own 6-yard line.

The game gave UA its first 10-victory season in 90 years of football, and its strong showing earned the Cats a No. 9 final ranking in the coaches poll and No. 10 in the media poll.

1994 Freedom Bowl

Utah 16, Arizona 13
Dec. 27, 1994 // Anaheim, Calif.

ANAHEIM, Calif. - Utah used a 72-yard kickoff return to set up the winning touchdown, as the Utes upset No. 14 Arizona in the 11th annual Freedom Bowl, 16-13. A crowd of 27,477 watched as the Cats used a stifling defense to hold Utah to only 75 yards of total offense.

Arizona quarterback Dan White connected with Ontiwaun Carter from 23 yards out to give the Cats the early lead. After a White fumble deep in Arizona territory, Utah running back Charlie Brown scampered in from six yards out to tie the score.

After a 44-yard field goal by Steve McLaughlin, the Cats had first-and-goal at the Utah 2-yard line, but two dropped passes by Tim Thomas and then Lamar Lovett in the end zone forced the Cats to kick a 20-yard field goal. Late in the fourth quarter with Arizona leading 13-7, and Matt Peyton having to punt from his own end zone, the Cats gambled and took a safety as Peyton stepped out of the back of the end zone.

On the ensuing kickoff, Cal Beck returned the ball to the Arizona 5-yard line. The Wildcat defense held the Utes on three straight downs to set up a fourth-and-goal. Quarterback Mike McCoy scrambled out of the pocket and was in the grasp of Chuck Osborne but managed to get the pass off and found Kevin Dyson in the corner of the end zone for the winning score. A final UA drive ended in an interception.

The Cats recorded six sacks on the day, three of them by Teddy Bruschi, who earned Defensive MVP honors. Chuck Osborne had two sacks, and Sean Harris led the team with nine tackles.

1997 Insight.com Bowl

Arizona 20, New Mexico 14
Dec. 27, 1997 // Tucson, Ariz.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Four Wildcat interceptions helped seal a hard-fought victory for Arizona over New Mexico in the ninth Insight.com Bowl, 20-14, before a crowd of 49,385 in the Cats' house, Arizona Stadium.

UA ran over the Lobos, using a 209-yard running attack featuring the quicker Trung Canidate and the bruising style of Kelvin Eafon on 43 of the team's 81 plays. Canidate was named the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player with 97 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries, while Eafon earned the game's Most Valuable Player award for his 75 yards and two touchdowns on 19 totes. Thirteen of his rushes came in the fourth quarter when Arizona used ball possession to turn back New Mexico efforts at a game-winning touchdown.

Arizona picked off four passes by UNM's Graham Leigh—one in the first quarter by cornerback Chris McAlister, two in the third quarter by backup corner Kelvin Hunter and strong safety Rashee Johnson, and one in the fourth stanza by cornerback Kelly Malveaux, who returned the ball 44 yards just as the Lobos were crossing midfield. It was Malveaux' first interception of the year. Arizona outside linebacker Jimmy Spottle earned the bowl's Most Outstanding Defensive Player honor with nine tackles including four hits for losses of 12 yards. Inside linebacker Marcus Bell was the Cats' leading tackler with 10.

Arizona coach Dick Tomey gave fifth-year senior QB Brady Batten the start in the game. An injury early in the year cost him a shot at the every-day spot. He played all but the fourth quarter, when the nominal No. 1 guy for most of the year, Ortege Jenkins, came on.

1998 Culligan Holiday Bowl

Arizona 23, Nebraska 20
Dec. 30, 1998 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Arizona's defense held the storied Nebraska option rushing attack to 87 net yards, and the No. 5-ranked Wildcats cranked up some tough-guy rushing of their own to score 14 fourth-quarter points and beat the No. 14 Cornhuskers, 23-20, in the 21st annual Culligan Holiday Bowl.

The Cats secured the school's finest record in history and earned enough acclaim through their efforts in the game — the most watched of any college bowl game in ESPN history — to earn a final No. 4 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls.

Unanimous All-America cornerback Chris McAlister cemented his reputation with an outstanding effort, intercepting two passes, one which turned the Huskers back on their final come-back try with less than four minutes remaining. He also had a 78-yard reverse punt return called back because of a questionable blocking call against Derek Hall.

Arizona trailed 13-9 at the half, and both teams struggled through five possessions in the third quarter before UA's Dennis Northcutt gave the Cats some decent field position with a 16-yard punt return to start a 10-play scoring drive. Trung Canidate rushed five times for 37 yards in the span, and Keith Smith completed passes of five yards to Northcutt and Paul Shields and topped it off with a 15-yard strike to Brad Brennan for the score.

Nebraska answered, though, and reclaimed the lead at 20-16 with an eight-play, 88-yard drive, almost exclusively through the air.

With 10 minutes remaining, Smith opened UA's next drive with a seven-yard pass to Shields, then the Cats ran the ball eight straight times for the nine-play, 68-yard drive which netted the final score on a Kelvin Eafon one-yard plunge. Smith had runs of 20, eight and eight yards to set up the score.

UA halted the Huskers with McAlister's second pick and then later used enough clock with a first down to force Nebraska to get the ball back with 34 seconds remaining. One short completion and three incompletions, and the game was over.

Canidate ran for 101 yards on 22 carries. Smith, who completed 11-of-19 passing for 143 yards and ran for 25 more, was named Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP. UA's Mark McDonald, who was 8-17 in field goals during the regular season, was a big key with a perfect 3-for-3 day, including a career-long 48-yarder. NU outgained the Cats, but UA won the turnover battle and kicking game.

2008 Las Vegas Bowl

Arizona 31, BYU 21
Dec. 20, 2008 // Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Arizona capped its best season in nine years with a solid effort against No. 17 Brigham Young, beating the Cougars 31-21 in the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl.

The Cats took the first lead, set up by a 71-yard pass from Willie Tuitama to Terrell Turner, added a Jason Bondzio 31-yard field goal a third of the way into the second quarter.

Tuitama fumbled a low snap on the first play of the second half and BYU took a 14-10 lead four minutes into the frame with the gift 27-yard drive.

After that, Arizona stalled once, missing a 3rd-and-1 opportunity, but turned right around for a defensive three-and-out and two plays later Tuitama's 37-yard pass to Delashaun Dean struck put the Cats back in the lead.

The Cougs fought back with a 12-play, 39-yard drive, but missed a long field goal attempt. Tuitama hit successive passes of 19 and 17 yards, and after a five-yard gain by Nic Grigsby fired one down the seam to a streaking Chris Gronkowski for a 27-yard score, making it 24-14 at the end of the period.

Five minutes into the final period, Wildcat cornerback Marquis Hundley manned up and intercepted BYU's Max Hall in the end zone, taking it out to the UA 18 yard-line. Tuitama led a seven-play, 82-yard drive, sparked by a 27-yard run by Grigsby and a 23-yard pass to Turner, and then ran it in himself from six yards out for a 31-14 lead. Again the Cougars showed some of their 17th-ranked gumption, using eight Hall passes and two of his runs to get into the end zone quickly, and recovered an ensuing onside kick at the UA 48 yard-line. Hall drove BYU 28 yards, but Mitch Payne's field goal attempt banged off the left upright with 2:07 left.

The Cats ran the ball four times and then Tuitama scootched a three-yard pass to Mike Thomas on the final play of the game, giving the latter the Pac-10 career receiving record with his 259th reception as time expired. Dean led UA with seven catches for 88 yards to help Tuitama complete 24 of 35 throws for 325 yards and the game's MVP award.

2009 Holiday Bowl

Nebraska 33, Arizona 0
Dec. 30, 2009 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - No. 20 Nebraska showed it was more than two ranking spots ahead of No. 22 Arizona by throttling the Wildcats, 33-0, in the Holiday Bowl.

After developing a reputation for high-scoring games and crazy finishes, the bowl got the first shutout in its 32-year history. Zac Lee threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to Niles Paul in the third quarter to highlight the win, but it was only one moment in a dominating effort.

The coaches expected a defensive game, and the Huskers delivered, earning their first shutout in 46 bowl appearances, plus held UA to 109 net yards. Arizona quarterback Nick Foles was harassed all night and had one of his toughest outings of the year, finishing with nine completions in 30 attempts, for a miniscule 48 yards.

The Wildcats had the ball fourth-and-3 at the Nebraska 8-yard line with 1:41 to go, and eschewed a field goal, with safety P.J. Smith batting down Foles' pass to preserve the shutout. Nebraska free safety Matt O'Hanlon intercepted Foles on the third play from scrimmage and returned it 37 yards to the Arizona 5. Lee scored on a four-yard run two plays later. It was the fastest score in Holiday Bowl history, coming just 75 seconds in.

Nebraska (10-4) got its first 10-win season since 2003. Nebraska's Alex Henery set a Holiday Bowl record with four field goals, from 47, 50, 41 and 22 yards. Arizona finished 8-5. NU coach Bo Pelini earned bragging rights in Youngstown, Ohio, where he and UA coach Mike Stoops grew up and played at Cardinal Mooney High.

2010 Alamo Bowl

Oklahoma State 36, Arizona 10
Dec. 29, 2010 // San Antonio, Texas

SAN ANTONIO, Texas - No. 14 Oklahoma State kept Arizona's offense out of the end zone and used four Wildcat turnovers to spoil the Pac-10's first game in the bowl since its early years.

Arizona outgained the Cowboys 370 to 312 yards, holding the vaunted OSU offense some 200 yards under its average. After an initial stop, however, Bug Wright fumbled the first punt of the game and gave OSU a short field for a 26-yard drive and the lead. The Cats were stopped on their next possession and OSU's Brandon Weeden connected on a 71-yard toss to Justin Blackmon to add to the lead.

UA answered with a 63-yard drive to cut it to 14-7. After an exchange of possession a short UA punt set the Cowboys up at midfield and OSU settled for the first of three Dan Bailey FGs. On Arizona's ensuing drive, Nick Foles was intercepted by Markelle Martin and returned 62 yards for a score. Bailey missed the kick and it was 23-. UA took the ball inside the OSU 40 yard-line three times but could not score before halftime.

UA showed some life with an Alex Zendejas field goal in the third quarter to make it 23-10 but OSU answered with its longest drive of the night to make it 30-10. Another Foles' interception near midfield set up a second Bailey field goal. Zendejas missed a 34-yarder minutes later in the fourth period, and Bailey knocked one home again for the final score. UA drove to the OSU 9 yard-line but could not cash in on 3rd- and 4th-and-1.

The Cats had 25 first downs to 17 by the Cowboys, held a 15-minute edge in time of possession but were one for three in the red zone, were sacked five times (to zero for UA), and suffered three interceptions and the fumbled punt for -4 turnover margin.

Receiver David Douglas took home the Fred Jacoby Sportsmanship Award for a 6-catch, 91-yard evening while the bowl offensive MVP award went to Blackmon for eight receptions for 112 yards and two scores, and the defensive MVP honor went to OSU defensive back Martin for his key INT.

2012 Gildan New Mexico Bowl

Arizona 49, Nevada 48
Dec. 20, 2012 // Albuquerque, N.M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - With a last-minute touchdown and a successful onside kick recovery, Arizona football pulled out a victory over Nevada, 49-48, at the Gildan New Mexico in Albuquerque, N.M. Saturday's game ties the largest comeback in UA history (21 points). Senior quarterback Matt Scott was named Offensive MVP and junior linebacker Marquis Flowers was named Defensive MVP.

Nevada took a 48-35 lead with 1:48 to play. Arizona answered back with a two-yard Scott touchdown pass to sophomore Austin Hill with a good point after attempt to cut the score to 48-42 with 0:46 to play. Senior John Bonano converted a perfect onside kick attempt with the recovery from Flowers. The Wildcats went on to score the winning touchdown on a two-yard pass to sophomore Tyler Slavin from Scott with 0:19 to play. Flowers then immediately secured the victory with an interception on Nevada's final offensive possession.

Sophomore Ka'Deem Carey ran for 172 yards on 28 carries and three touchdowns. He now tallies 1,929 yards on the season, to continue to lead the nation in rushing. Carey is now UA's school record holder for rushing TDs in season with 23, including his three against Nevada on Saturday. He also set the Arizona bowl game record of rushing yards in a game (172). The previous bowl game record was 142 yards by Chuck Levy against Miami in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl.

In his final game as a Wildcat, Scott threw for 382 yards and three TDs on 28-of-47 pass attempts with two interceptions. He also rushed for 21 yards on six carries and one touchdown. Hill led the UA receivers with eight catches for 175 yards and two touchdowns. Saturday's game marks his fifth 100-yard performance of the season and the sixth of his career.

True freshman linebacker C.J. Dozier paced the defense with 15 tackles, nine solo and six assisted. Junior Shaquille Richardson collected his first pick of the season and the seventh of his career. Junior Jake Fischer recovered his fourth fumble of the season against the Wolf Pack. Flowers also recorded 10 tackles. UA had five true freshmen playing on defense during various points of the game: Keoni Bush-Loo, Dozier, Vince Miles, William Parks and Wayne Capers Jr.

2013 AdvoCare V100 Bowl

Arizona 42, Boston College 19
Dec., 2013 // Shreveport, La.

SHREVEPORT, La. - Arizona football defeated Boston College, 42-19, in the AdvoCare V100 Bowl Game in record-breaking fashion, Monday, at Independence Stadium. Senior quarterback B.J. Denker was named Offensive MVP and sophomore William Parks was named Defensive MVP.

The victory gave UA eight wins for a second-consecutive year, marking the first back-to-back eight-win seasons since 2008-09. Along with bowl game records, multiple school records were also broken for the Wildcats.

The six Wildcat touchdowns tied the Bowl record for most touchdowns. The Wildcats also recorded the most first downs in the bowl's history with 49.

The Wildcats' offensive clinic was led by Denker's 275 passing yards. True freshman Nate Phillips had 193 receiving yards and recorded the first 100-yard receiving game for Arizona on the season. He also broke the school record for most receiving yards in a bowl game as well as most receiving yards in a game by a freshman in school history.

Ka'Deem Carey finished off his junior season with 16-straight 100-plus yard games with his 169-yard performance. As well, he has officially become the all-time all-purpose leader in yardage. Prior to Carey, the record was 5,392 yards, held by Dennis Northcutt.

On defense, the Wildcats held the Eagles to just two touchdowns and two field goals. Jake Fischer tied his career-high tackles with 14.

2014 VIZIO Fiesta Bowl

Boise State 38, Arizona 30
Dec. 31, 2014 // Glendale, Ariz.

GLENDAL, Ariz. - No. 21 Boise State was able to hold off another Arizona miraculous comeback as it won the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl, 38-30, in dramatic fashion.

Boise State quarterback Grant Hedrick finished the game 24-of-34 for 309 yards, a touchdown and an interception. He also added 29 yards on the ground. Hedrick completed 17-of-18 passes in the first half for 272 yards, while completing his first 14 of the game.

Hedrick's main target and Offensive Player of the Game Thomas Sperbeck had a big game himself, hauling in 12 catches for 199 yards. Running back Jay Ajayi also had a phenomenal game, tallying 22 carries for 134 yards and three touchdowns.

Defensive Player of the Game Tanner Vallejo finished with 14 total tackles for the Broncos. He added 1.5 sacks as well.

For Arizona, quarterback Anu Solomon finished the game 28-of-49 for 335 yards, a touchdown and two interceptions, while rushing for 32 yards and a score, as well. Receiver Cayleb Jones hauled in eight receptions for 117 yards, and Samajie Grant added 69 yards and a touchdown. Running back Nick Wilson carried the ball 19 times for 86 yards and a touchdown.

Both Tra'Mayne Bondurant and Scooby Wright III had good days on the defensive end for the Wildcats. Bondurant finished with 11 total tackles, two for loss, one sack, one forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Wright added 10 tackles of his own and two for a loss, as well.

Boise State got off to a quick start on their first possession after a 56-yard touchdown run by Ajayi, capping a four-play, 78-yard drive, which took 1:42.

2015 New Mexico Bowl

Arizona 45, New Mexico 37
Dec. 19, 2015 // Albuquerque, N.M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Quarterback Anu Solomon and All-America linebacker Scooby Wright III returned from injuries to help Arizona (7-6) hold off pesky New Mexico 45-37 in a wild New Mexico Bowl.

Solomon threw for two touchdowns and rushed for another score against New Mexico (7-6) in a game that saw New Mexico surge late after being down as many of 18 points. Wright had two sacks and 11 solo tackles.

After the game, Wright announced he would enter the NFL draft.

Arizona's high-temp offense needed only 19:08 minutes of possession time to overwhelm New Mexico in the Lobos' first bowl appearance since 2007.

Jared Baker ran for 107 yards and three touchdowns, and Cayleb Jones had 182 yards receiving and a touchdown.

For Arizona, the New Mexico Bowl win comes just a year after Arizona eyed a playoff spot. Rodriguez said a bowl appearance and a victory was just fine for the team.

Meanwhile, New Mexico quarterback Lamar Jordan rushed for three touchdowns and threw a 92-yard touchdown pass to Delane Hart-Johnson before leaving in the third quarter with a knee injury. However, Jordan tossed two key interceptions -- one in Arizona's end zone and another deep in New Mexico territory.

After Jordan's departure, the Lobos then turned to a committee of running backs to get New Mexico back in the game.

Still, Arizona was able to hold star running back Jhurrell Pressley to 75 rushing yards and no touchdowns.

Future Non-Conference Schedules

Below are future Arizona football non-conference games with finalized contracts between the respective schools dating through the 2033 season. Dates and locations of games remain subject to change in certain cases at the discretion of television partners of the Pac-12 Conference and/or the opposing host institutions' conference or other media rights holders.

Pac-12 Conference schedules are typically announced no later than January of the upcoming season. In the case of Arizona, the Wildcats are scheduled to play five (5) Pac-12 games at Arizona Stadium in even-numbered seasons, with four (4) games on the road. For odd-numbered years, Arizona will play four (4) home conference games with five (5) road contests.

Due to Arizona's move to the Big 12 beginning with the 2024 football season, future non-conference schedules may be affected.

The Nation's Oldest Rivalry Trophy

In summer 2001, officials at Arizona and Arizona State received NCAA Division I-A designation for the 1899 Territorial Cup as the oldest trophy for a rivalry game in America. The annual Arizona-Arizona State winner obtains possession of the Cup for its Hall of Fame, a replica goes to the winning school's president's office, and two later trophies used over the years in the hard-fought rivalry are awarded to the winning coach and the Most Valuable Player.

On Thanksgiving Day in 1899, then Arizona Territorial Normal School defeated Arizona 11-2 in front of a reported 300 fans, and the Cup had its first curator. But over the years, the silver-plated antique prize was misplaced and supplanted by various other awards for the Big Game - the Governor's Trophy (1953-1979), a "Victory" sculpture by artist Ben Goo, and a Saguaro Trophy, among others. Now, to ensure the safety of the original trophy, the actual Territorial Cup moves from one school to the other only under escort and the supervision of gloved archivists.

Each year, members of the media vote on a Most Valuable Player at the conclusion of the game. Since 2008, the honor has been named the Bob Moran Most Valuable Player Award, named after the longtime East Valley Tribune sports reporter who also worked at the Arizona Daily Star for 13 years and covered both schools as a beat writer and columnist. The Ben Goo Trophy, awarded from 1979 to 1998 as the game trophy, has become the physical award given to the game's MVP. The Saguaro Trophy, a smaller bronze piece commissioned from artist Dora Perry in 1998, is presented and kept each year by the winning coach.

Dick Tomey, Arizona's Winningest Coach

The end of the 2000 season saw Dick Tomey resign after 14 years at Arizona. More than two dozen counterparts had coached at the other nine league schools during his tenure. Tomey led Arizona to its two best seasons and left a strong legacy as a coach-educator and the winningest coach in UA history.

- Nine winning seasons; overall UA Coaching Record: 95-64-4
- Top 10 in career victories by active Division I-A coaches at time
- Pac-10 Conference Record: 60-49-4
- No. 8 on all-time Pac-10 coaching victories chart at time
- One of four coaches to win 12 games in 85 years of Pac-10
- Pac-10 Coach of the Year, 1992
- 20 All-Americans, 43 first-team All-Pac-10 players; Four Pac-10 POYs
- 1998 Provost Award for Outstanding Teaching
- Graduation Rate of 67 percent in final report; best in Pac-10, 10th in nation
- Seven Bowl Games, four bowl victories
- Arizona's highest national final ranking (No. 4 in 1998)
- AFCA Western Regional Coach of the Year 1982
- Eight Major National Player Awards; Four Morris Trophy winners

World War II Years
No teams fielded

Like many schools around the nation, Arizona did not field a football team during the World War II years of 1943 and 1944. The war began affecting college football programs as early as 1942, though the Wildcats managed a 6-4 record under coach Miles W. Casteel in their final season before the two-year hiatus.

Among those on the 1942 squad were William "Bill" Lowell (pictured), Rue Mattice and Stanley Petropolis, who served in World War II and were killed in action. Lowell served in the U.S. Marine Corps and died during the battle of Iwo Jima, a month-long conflict that killed more than 6,800 Americans. Petropolis was one of 19,000 American soldiers killed in the Battle of the Bulge, an attack by Germany on France, Belgium and Luxembourg late in World War II. Mattice, a First Lieutenant in the U.S. Army, died shortly after Japan announced it would surrender, flying transport in the Philippines when he lost power to both engines.

In 2008, a memorial was built on campus to honor Lowell and fellow teammates from the 1942 football team who served in World War II. The memorial was inspired by J. David Lowell, Bill Lowell's younger brother and a generous UA benefactor. Lowell donated $2.5 million in capital funding toward construction of the UA basketball/volleyball practice facility northeast of McKale Memorial Center. The memorial – which features a life-size bust of Bill Lowell – is located just west of the entrance to the Richard Jefferson Gymnasium.

David Lowell and his wife Edith later made additional contributions to the athletics department to fund construction of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, which is a five-story football building that houses the entire Wildcat football operation and encloses the north end of Arizona Stadium.

Conference Affiliation Notes

Arizona's first conference affiliation was with the Border Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, founded in 1931. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State Teachers College-Flagstaff (now NAU), Arizona State Teachers College-Tempe (now ASU), New Mexico and New Mexico A&M (now New Mexico State). Subsequent additions were Texas Tech (1932-35), Texas Mines (now UTEP, 1935-61), Hardin-Simmons (1941-61) and West Texas Teachers College (now West Texas A&M, 1941-61). The league was disbanded in 1961... Arizona played as an independent in 1961, transitioning to membership in the Western Athletic Conference, which began in July 1962. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State, Utah, New Mexico, Brigham Young and Wyoming. In 1967 UTEP and Colorado State joined. Arizona and ASU departed for the Pacific-10 Conference beginning with the 1978 football season, joining California, UCLA, USC, Stanford, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington and Washington State. Colorado and Utah accepted invitations to join the league in June 2010 and began play in the newly branded Pac-12 Conference in 2011. 2023 marks the Wildcats final season of play in the Pac-12. Arizona, along with Arizona State, Colorado, and Utah, will join the Big 12 and begin competition in their new conference beginning with the 2024-25 season.
